10:13:54 10:13:56		COMMISSIONER: You have leave to appear in respect of the witness Mr Trichias.
10:13:56	31	withess in filterias.
10:13:58		MR CHERNOK: Correct, yes, that's my understanding, not
10:13:59		this witness.
10.10.03	34
	35	COMMISSIONER: Not this witness, no.
	36
10:13:59	37	MR CHERNOK: What I would seek is to be excused at this
10:14:01	38	stage.
	39
10:14:01	40	If I could also mention, just as a matter of
	41	housekeeping, that, together with Dr Gumbleton, I act for
10:14:06		Mr Goussis. We've currently got a jury that's about to go
10:14:11		out in a trial we've done together, so we're trying to
10:14:14		juggle the two commitments as best as we can and we hope
10:14:18	45 46	there'll be no disruption whatsoever to the Commission.
10:14:21	-	In relation to the witness Trichias, I'm still waiting on a copy of the Trichias statement. I understand that 10:14:24 1 2 there are some discussions that have been had between 10:14:27 3 counsel assisting and those representing Victoria Police's 10:14:30 4 interests. 10:14:33 6 I'm also waiting, Madam Commissioner, and I don't know 10:14:34 that I'd necessarily get this, but on a copy of 7 10:14:37 10:14:39 8 Mr Trichias' notes. I anticipate that counsel assisting will, if I can put it this way, lead the cross-examination 9 10:14:46 of Mr Trichias and then on behalf of Mr Goussis, we may be 10:14:51 10 in a position to ask some questions, but ultimately I'd be 10:14:54 11 10:14:57 12 seeking to reserve our position as far as cross-examining him, or having him recalled is concerned, until the witness 10:15:00 13 Mr Jim O'Brien gives his evidence, given that they're both 10:15:05 14 involved, as I understand it, with Person and also with 10:15:09 15 10:15:11 16 So if I can just lay that out at this stage and get out of the Commission's way so that this witness can 10:15:16 17 proceed, but perhaps we can return to those matters 10:15:20 18 10:15:24 19 when - -20 COMMISSIONER: I'll just try and get an estimate as to how long we'll be with this witness, Mr Allen. 10:15:29 22 Ms Tittensor? 10:15:32 23 10:15:32 24 MS TITTENSOR: I think I told the Commissioner maybe an hour and a half, last night.

COMMISSIONER: That includes cross-examination?

MS TITTENSOR: It might depend on what happens down the Bar table.

COMMISSIONER: All right. If it assists, we could probably give you a not before 11.30 time anyway.

I'm very grateful, Madam Commissioner, thank MR CHERNOK: If I might be excused. you.

COMMISSIONER: Yes, thank you.

MS LLOYD: Commissioner, I appear on behalf of Mr Orman.

COMMISSIONER: Ms Lloyd, is it?

10:16:03 44 MS LLOYD: Our position is similar to that of Mr Chernok, in that we've also been - we had leave - -

10:16:20	7	COMMISSIONER: Yes.
10:16:22	9	MS LLOYD: We've been provided with a number of very
10:16:24	10	heavily redacted statements and the redactions - the effect
10:16:27	11	of those redactions are such that we're not actually in a
10:16:30	12	position to determine whether these witnesses actually
10:16:33	13	concern Mr Orman and so we're here as a fact-finding
10:16:39	14	exercise. But we're happy not to be here if they don't

	16
10:16:46	17	COMMISSIONER: Which witnesses are you referring to there?
	18
10:16:50	19	MS LLOYD: We currently have statements for Mr Allen,

10:16:59	21	Bateson and Buick later on.
	22
10:17:01	23	COMMISSIONER: The statements - would it be right,
10:17:02	24	Mr Winneke, for Ms Lloyd to assume that if she's provided
10:17:06		with a statement, the Commission thinks it is relevant to
10:17:10		her client?
	27
10:17:14	28	MR WINNEKE: Yes, Commissioner, that's right, although it
10:17:17	29	would seem to me that the lawyers for those two people,
10:17:26	30	Orman and Goussis, ought be provided with a statement which
10:17:29		is shaded

10:17:36	36	clients. If there are other matters which are irrelevant,
10:17:39		okay. But, I mean, the reality is they will be in court
10:17:41	38	for the cross-examination of these people and they ought
10:17:44		have an opportunity to have the statements in a way which
10:17:48		makes it sensible to them.

COMMISSIONER: And can they discuss it with their clients?

10:17:58 4 10:18:03

10:18:05

10:18:08

COMMISSIONER: They have to.

7 8 10:18:06

For them to be effectively able to participate MR WINNEKE: in the inquiry to assist the Commission, they need to be able to seek instructions from their client.

10:18:11 10 11 10:18:14 12

It seems that, in Mr Orman's case, there's been a decision made, whether it be by police or Corrections, that he can't view this material. If he can't view it, he's not able to give instructions.

MS LLOYD: Mr Orman is effectively entirely shut out of these proceedings. He's not able to view the live stream because of a decision made by Corrections. He's now no longer able to have the public hearings recorded and brought into him, that's become entirely unworkable, and as I understand it, there won't be - I'm not sure whether there'll be a transcript of the in camera proceedings, that can then be provided to him at a later date, but as at today, we're unable to take instructions in relation to any of these matters and he's shut out entirely.

So how he can - his participation can be facilitated is a matter of concern. We've written to Corrections, we've written to lawyers acting on behalf of the Attorney-General. We've yet to receive a satisfactory response. So that's - so because of that, we are in a similar position to Mr Chernok, in that we would seek to reserve our position. We will not be seeking to cross-examine any witnesses because we still don't have notes and we cannot obtain our client's instructions.

COMMISSIONER: I have seen an affidavit I've been provided with - I'm not sure that it's been tendered before the

.26/06/19 2912

Commission yet - of Mr Brendan Money that touches on these 10:20:00 1 2 Have you seen that affidavit? 10:20:03 3 10:20:06 4 No. That affidavit was a confidential affidavit, as I understand it. We've not been provided 5 10:20:08 6 with that. 10:20:10 7 10:20:11 8 MR CHERNOK: If I could just interrupt my learned friend. My understanding, based on Mr Goussis' instructions, is 9 10:20:14 that all affected persons are in the same position. 10:20:17 10 10:20:21 11 haven't seen the affidavit of Mr Money. It's impossible 10:20:25 12 for us, in my respectful submission, to properly take instructions from our client on matters that really are 10:20:28 13 material as far as this Royal Commission's Terms of 10:20:31 14 Reference are concerned. 10:20:35 15 16 10:20:40 17 COMMISSIONER: Thank you. Mr Hannebery, what do you say to the legal representatives for Witness ■ and Mr Orman 10:20:49 18 obtaining unredacted statements from the witnesses for whom 10:20:54 19 10:20:59 20 they have leave to appear? 21 10:21:01 22 MR HANNEBERY: I know you directed that question to me, but 10:21:04 23 Ms Enbom is handling the witnesses today, so it might be 10:21:07 24 better - - -25 10:21:07 26 COMMISSIONER: All right, thank you. Yes, Ms Enbom. 10:21:09 27 10:21:10 28 MS ENBOM: I should formally announce an appearance, Commissioner, for today's witnesses. 10:21:12 29 30 10:21:14 31 Can I hand - perhaps the best place to start is with 10:21:20 32 the witness statement of Mark Hatt. Do you, Commissioner, have a copy of that to hand? 10:21:25 33 34 10:21:43 35 COMMISSIONER: Yes. 10:21:45 36 10:21:46 37 Commissioner, if you could please go to MS ENBOM: paragraph 38. I won't read out the paragraph because the 10:21:48 38 10:21:52 39 names in that paragraph have all been redacted in the 10:21:57 40 version of the statement that has been provided to 10:21:59 41 Mr Orman's solicitors. 42 COMMISSIONER:

onwards, and again, those names have all been redacted in

Then if, Commissioner, you could please move to

You'll see in paragraphs 50 through - 50

the version provided to Mr Orman's solicitors.

COMMISSIONER: 50 on to where?

MS ENBOM: 50 on through to - right through to paragraph 71, but you don't need all of those paragraphs, Commissioner. The point is that you'll see that this witness is a witness relevant to Mr Orman. The statement has been provided with names redacted because I think PII claims have been made.

You'll see also, Commissioner, if you go back to, let's say, paragraph 7, you'll see in the heading above paragraph 7 the people that this witness will be giving evidence about. Then if we move to paragraph 23, the heading above paragraph 23, you'll see there another person that this witness will be giving evidence about. Because of those matters, in my submission this witness, and the same issue arises for Mr Allen, who is the first witness this morning, and Mr L'Estrange, who is the last witness today, their evidence will need to be given in camera because their evidence deals with those people. So that then raises an issue as to who should be present during the in camera hearing.

Following the ruling made last week, accredited media will be present during the in camera hearing, but the real issue is whether Mr Orman's counsel should be present during the in camera hearing.

COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MS ENBOM: Victoria Police's position is that counsel should not be present because there is a comprehensive disclosure process under way so that - so Mr Hatt will give evidence today. That transcript will then be reviewed following his evidence and an assessment will be made as to what, if anything, ought to be disclosed to Mr Orman. The transcript will be reviewed, it'll be reviewed for disclosure obligations, but it will also, obviously, be reviewed for PII and any disclosure will be made.

If, disclosure having been made, Mr Orman would then like to cross-examine a witness about a matter that has been covered in evidence, then either - and I accept that it's not ideal - but either that witness could be recalled, so that counsel assisting could deal with that issue, any

10:26:07		the primary position in relation to Mr Orman's presence
10:26:10	_	during the in camera hearing.
10:26:15
10:26:16		There's then - as I understand it, in court today we
10:26:22		also have a solicitor appearing for the person
10:26:33		COMMISSIONER: I think Mr Kornhauser, for Witness , is
10:26:37		going to seek leave to appear for the witnesses Allen,
10:26:40		L'Estrange and Swindells.
	11
10:26:47		MR KORNHAUSER: Yes, Commissioner. We act on behalf of
10:26:51	13	Witness and we understand that he may be the subject of
10:26:54	14	some of the evidence given in what might be a closed
10:26:57	15	session today, and if that is the case, we would seek leave
10:27:00	16	to be present in that closed session.
	17
10:27:01	18	COMMISSIONER: There will be open and closed sessions, I
10:27:03	19	imagine.
10:27:04	20
10:27:04	21	MR KORNHAUSER: Yes, Commissioner.
	22
10:27:05	23	COMMISSIONER: You are asking for leave to appear in both?
10:27:07	24
10:27:08	25	MR KORNHAUSER: Yes, Commissioner.
	26
10:27:10	27	COMMISSIONER: Because the evidence of those witnesses
10:27:12	28	affects your client?
10:27:14	29
10:27:14	30	MR KORNHAUSER: That's correct, Commissioner.
	31
10:27:15	32	COMMISSIONER: All right. Thank you.
10:27:16	33
10:27:17	34	MS ENBOM: Commissioner, Victoria Police's position in
10:27:20	35	relation to A is that there is no objection to A being
10:27:24	36	present during the evidence that's given about A, but, of
10:27:27	37	course, these witnesses will cover matters well beyond A.
	38
10:27:39	39	COMMISSIONER: It's very difficult
10:27:41	40
10:27:41	41	MS ENBOM: It's difficult.
	42
10:27:42	43	COMMISSIONER: with people popping in for half a
10:27:44	44	sentence. Unworkable, I would have thought.
10:27:48
10:27:48		MS ENBOM: It's difficult without a bit of planning and I
10:27:51		know that it's hard to plan just before these witnesses

.26/06/19 2915 give evidence. But with a bit of planning, the cross-examination could be conducted by subject matter. if Mr Allen, for example, could be first cross-examined in relation to A. A's solicitor would then be present for that cross-examination, and the same - - -

COMMISSIONER: The difficulty too is trying to separate these things can interrupt the narrative and mean that the full picture isn't being received by the person representing that particular interest.

It's hard, though, for me to identify what MS ENBOM: Yes. interest A would have in Mr Allen's evidence, for example, about a number of other people. But that is Victoria Police's position in relation to who ought to be present during the closed hearings when today's witnesses give evidence.

COMMISSIONER: Right. Thank you. Does the State have a position?

Commissioner, I don't have any instructions on DR BUTTON: the presence of witnesses or the extent to which they should be provided with unredacted statements. can I just say, in relation to the matters that have been raised by those here for Mr Goussis and Mr Orman, that the State does not accept that those individuals are shut out in the way that's been put. Mr Money's affidavit is confidential, so I won't travel into the detail of it, but the Commission will be aware that Mr Money has set out avenues to facilitate the taking of instructions from those individuals.

COMMISSIONER: It's not very helpful when they haven't got access to the affidavit. They're going to have to have access to Mr Money's affidavit, aren't they, so that they can understand what's being proposed. This is sort of cloud cuckoo land.

DR BUTTON: Commissioner, the avenues to which I'm referring have been the subject also of correspondence with Mr Orman, so that's not specific or confined to the If the Commission is pressing for some form of the affidavit to be provided to those individuals, I need to take instructions and see what amendments or changes would need to be made to protect the confidential information concerning the custodial arrangements of some

What information that is in the confidential COMMISSIONER: affidavit that I have read has been communicated to Mr Orman and other people who claim to have been affected by Ms Gobbo's conduct about the taking of instructions, because let's talk about that, what is available to them?

DR BUTTON: So far as Mr Orman is concerned, there's been an offer that if a matter arises where there's a need to take instructions from him, his representatives have been invited to contact Mr Money directly, so that he can facilitate expedited confidential communication between Mr Orman and his representatives. I understand that there hasn't been any engagement about those arrangements with the other affected persons, that they have not been in contact about the same concerns in the way that Mr Orman has.

COMMISSIONER: All right. I suppose it might be reasonable to infer that if those arrangements can be made for Mr Orman, they may be able to be made for others, but that remains to be seen.

DR BUTTON: Yes, Commissioner. Might I also say that as matters stand at this point, it does not appear that a situation where a need to take instructions - let me withdraw that. The situation hasn't yet arisen, in the sense that there's been an identified need to take instructions or a way in which counsel assisting's cross-examination has not exposed a relevant issue. some extent, the issue has not crystallised in a way that is feared by those representing those individuals.

COMMISSIONER: Except, Dr Button, the first term of reference is the number of and extent to which cases may have been affected by the conduct of Ms Gobbo as a human The second is the conduct of current and former members of Victoria Police and their disclosures about and recruitment handling and management of Nicola Gobbo as a human source.

DR BUTTON: Yes, Commissioner. I didn't mean to - - -

COMMISSIONER: These are people who claim to have been affected by her conduct and who may well be able to assist the Commission in getting to the truth of the matter,

.26/06/19 2917 10:32:41 1 2 Yes, Commissioner, they may. I don't think 10:32:42 anyone's disputing they may have relevant information and 10:32:45 10:32:49 4 have an interest in the Commission's proceedings. 5 we understand it, including from the Practice Note 10:32:50 concerning cross-examination, the primary vehicle through 10:32:53 6 7 which the issues going to Terms of Reference 1 and 2 is to 10:32:56 10:33:01 8 be exposed is through the examination of counsel assisting. We can't take it further, unless the Commission has 9 10:33:03 10:33:05 10 further questions at this point.

> COMMISSIONER: Thank you. Do you want to say anything, Mr Chettle?

MR CHETTLE: No. Commissioner.

COMMISSIONER: Does anyone else at the Bar table want to No. Yes, Mr Winneke. say anything?

MR WINNEKE: Commissioner, I must say I find this somewhat extraordinary. This really is the first time it's been suggested that affected persons - potentially affected persons will not be present in court, or their lawyers wouldn't be present in court, to assist the Commission by - - -

COMMISSIONER: In the hearing room, rather.

MR WINNEKE: In the hearing room, to assist the Commission in coming to grips with Terms of Reference 1 and 2. hasn't been suggested before, whether it be in the argument that was had previously, nor on 5 June, I think, when we had a discussion about how the SDU hearings would proceed.

I find it somewhat strange that it's now being said, after the Commissioner has made the orders with respect to a private hearing, that it's now going to be said - it's now said that lawyers will not have access to the hearing and the clients won't have access to the hearing.

Yes, as a matter of course, counsel assisting will do - we will do our best to expose the materials to enable the Commission to come to a conclusion with respect to 1 and 2, but it is essential, as I've said previously, for those potentially affected persons to be able to participate and assist the Commission insofar as they can. I mean, we're dealing with potentially tens, if not hundreds, of cases which may have been affected. Now, I don't think it will go that far, but many, many cases which may have been affected, complicated cases. We can't possibly be expected to get on top of all of those issues in the time that we have, and that's why it's essential that affected persons, with the benefit of their knowledge of their own individual cases and the nuances of those cases, are in a position to And to that extent, that is why, in our submission, they ought be present and they ought have access to material to enable them to properly assist.

I mean, if one looks at, for example, the statement that my learned friend Ms Enbom has referred to, the statement of Mark Hatt, and if you go to paragraph 57, without going into details, it's suggested that, out of the shaded parts of that paragraph, that counsel for Mr Orman and Mr Orman shouldn't be able to have access to that It's absurd. material.

Commissioner, in our submission, it is absolutely essential and it's fundamental that the legal practitioners be present and they be able to get appropriate instructions.

COMMISSIONER: And they should have copies of the unredacted statements shaded, so they know what are the sensitive areas.

MR WINNEKE: Yes.

COMMISSIONER: Subject to an undertaking that they won't publish.

MR WINNEKE: Commissioner, you made an order last night, as I understood it, and I haven't got the transcript in front of me, but certainly that those people with general leave to appear should be provided with unredacted statements. My understanding was that - it may well be they're restricted to those at the Bar table. Start with tomorrow's statements and see how we go. So the statements

COMMISSIONER: That's right, it was limited to those at the Bar table yesterday.

He was provided with a Effectively, he was de facto transcript of that evidence. at the Bar table in any event, so one assumes that he ought be provided with that material and ought be provided with an unredacted statement, because he will be here during the course of the evidence, despite we're now told that he shouldn't be. That's never been said before. going to apply down the track also with respect to SDU hearings, where we get to fundamental - - -

COMMISSIONER: Yes. Of course, they're subject to the undertaking and I think we can accept that they will keep the undertaking. The difficulty then arises when they need to discuss this with their clients to get instructions, which they obviously need to.

MR WINNEKE: Of course.

COMMISSIONER: So I suppose the statements - they'll only need to discuss the statements insofar as they are required to get relevant instructions from their clients. So there will be parts of these statements where they might not need to - - -

MR WINNEKE: There'll be parts of the statement which won't be relevant to their particular matters and they won't need to get instructions with respect to those matters.

COMMISSIONER: Or pass that information on to their clients. Then they will also have to explain to their clients, for what it's worth, that there's a non-publication order in respect of the material and they can't discuss it with anybody else.

MR WINNEKE: These sorts of hearings take place on a daily basis.

COMMISSIONER: Or any lawyer.

MR CHERNOK: It's just - as I say, Kafka himself couldn't have dreamt it up.

COMMISSIONER: Yes. Ms Enbom, I don't agree with your submissions and I am directing that the legal representatives of parties given leave to appear for these witnesses are entitled to unredacted but shaded statements of the witnesses that they have leave to appear for, subject to the lawyers giving undertakings in the terms discussed and subject to them discussing the matters with their clients only insofar as they are relevant to getting instructions from their clients, and informing their clients of the strict nature of the non-publication orders relating to the suppression orders extant and the serious criminal sanctions that would apply for breach.

.26/06/19 2921

COMMISSIONER: The reason I'm making those orders is that I think it is important to the work of the Commission to enable the legal representatives of those who claim to have been affected by Ms Gobbo's conduct to assist the Commission in its work.

10:41:40 7

10:41:43

10:41:49

MS ENBOM: Yes. As the Commissioner pleases. May I raise two matters?

10:41:48 10 11

12 COMMISSIONER: Yes.

10:41:49 13 10:41:50 14

MS ENBOM: The first is that the shaded statements contain a significant amount of information that is entirely irrelevant to, for example, Mr Orman.

10:42:01 16 17

10:41:56 15

COMMISSIONER: Is entirely irrelevant to?

10:42:11 21

10:42:20 22 10:42:26 23

MS ENBOM: Irrelevant to, for example, Mr Orman. So dealing with Andrew Allen's statement and, in fact, all of them, Andrew Allen, Mr Hatt and Mr L'Estrange's statements, they cover a number of matters and many of those matters are not relevant to Mr Orman. So, in my submission, Mr Orman and his solicitor should not be given the shaded version of the statement in its entirety. If Mr Orman is to be given any part, it should be only the part that's relevant to Mr Orman.

10:42:30 24 10:42:34 25 10:42:41 26

10:42:52 28 29

10:42:55 30

10:42:58 31

10:43:02 32

COMMISSIONER: Well, the lawyers, of course, will have given an undertaking not to discuss parts that aren't relevant with their clients and they're not going to publish it, the rest of it, and unless you've got those statements ready to give out immediately in that form, I think that, for practical reasons, they should be given the statements as they are, because they need them now.

10:43:06 33 10:43:11 34 10:43:17 35

10:43:22 36 10:43:25 37 10:43:26 38

MS ENBOM: Yes. It might be that we could prepare a document that's in an appropriate form to go to them, but there is a - - -

10:43:30 39 10:43:32 40

COMMISSIONER: They're going to be present when the evidence is given. We can't be adjourning every two minutes every time someone's name's mentioned, to push people out and bring other people in. It's just impractical. I've made my ruling, Ms Enbom, that's it.

41 10:43:33 42 10:43:37 43

10:43:45 45 10:43:48 46

10:43:41 44

10:43:52 47

MS ENBOM: I need to raise one other matter, Commissioner.

COMMISSIONER: Yes, all right.

MS ENBOM: I'm sorry to aggravate. But as I understand it, the claims that have been made - so the redactions that are made are PII redactions, so the redactions made to the statement given to Mr Orman's solicitor are PII claims that are not abandoned, and those PII claims have not been argued and determined and, in my submission, they would need to be argued and determined before the redactions are lifted and provided to Mr Orman. Now, that will, of course, cause delay, that will delay the witnesses today, which we all want to avoid. So a way around that, and perhaps a practical way forward, is for Mr Orman's solicitor to be present during the evidence that's given by the three witnesses about matters that directly concern Mr Orman, without the benefit of the statement, but the way the cross-examination has been conducted so far, much of what's in the statement is often put to the witness, so Mr Orman will hear all that evidence, and Victoria Police then be given an opportunity to read the transcript after the hearing and make any PII claims in relation to that transcript before the transcript goes to Mr Orman's solicitor, to be shared with Mr Orman.

So the solicitor would be present during the evidence in relation to Mr Orman, on an undertaking that that evidence not be disclosed to Mr Orman, or to anyone, until Victoria Police has had an opportunity to read the transcript and make any PII claims and those PII claims are heard and determined. That would mean that we could get on with today's witnesses and that the witnesses are not delayed by having to have a protracted PII argument.

MR CHERNOK: Madam Commissioner, I'm sorry to cut across my learned friend, but I've heard nothing said about Mr Goussis and the position in relation to him. Mr Trichias, a witness that is to be called this morning, as I understand it, is one that we have leave to cross-examine. I hear what my learned friend says about not delaying proceedings, but at this stage, I still haven't received the statement, I don't have Mr Trichias' notes and I'm wondering whether the position is the same insofar as Mr Goussis' representatives are concerned.

MS ENBOM: Mr Trichias is not my witness. I was dealing

MS LLOYD: Sorry, Commissioner, do I understand that's the same order that you've made in relation to these witnesses today with respect to Mr Orman, that we're to be provided with shaded copies of the statements, we will be also provided with copies of notes when they - - -

COMMISSIONER: I haven't heard from Mr Winneke yet about this PII claim and I suppose what I've said in respect of Trichias' statement will have to be the same, that there are - are there unresolved PII claims in respect of Trichias' statement?

MR HANNEBERY: There's one, I can say. There's the one that we raised yesterday, in relation to paragraph 26, the first three lines of it.

MS LLOYD: Commissioner, if I could indicate with respect to the orders that were made yesterday, Mr Orman's legal team have not been provided with those, so I'm not sure how they affect these proceedings.

But if I could indicate, just in relation to the issue of whether or not Mr Orman is shut out of these proceedings, we have been provided with correspondence sent to my instructor in relation to accessing Mr Money at some point, but I don't understand how that is supposed to work practically. So we're present in the hearing, yet we don't have advance copies of statements or notes, we're present in the hearing - - -

COMMISSIONER: We're hoping you will have advance copies of statements.

MS LLOYD: So we hear evidence that we think is relevant, it's a matter we want to raise with our client. Are we supposed to then run out of the room, call Mr Money, or do we stand up and try to stand these matters down? How is it supposed to work on a practical level?

COMMISSIONER: The only thing that can - if we're going to continue in this way, the only thing that can happen is that you'll have to reserve your rights to cross-examine, unless there's something you want to do, and you might want

MS LLOYD: That's the position we've taken, we've not sought leave to cross-examine any witnesses, but we only take that position because we don't have the materials that we need in order to conduct any kind of effective cross-examination.

COMMISSIONER: I'm still trying to find the PII claim in respect of Mr Trichias' statement.

MR WINNEKE: Commissioner, there's an asserted claim for public interest immunity with respect to paragraph 26, I think, of Mr Trichias' statement - yes, in relation to paragraph 26. I have suggested to my learned friend that there would need to be some material to justify that claim.

Can I say this at this stage: I'm reasonably confident that the matters in paragraph 26 are not of concern to Mr Goussis, so that may mean that we could forge on with respect to that evidence.

COMMISSIONER: All right. Then you can supply the statement without the PII business in it. All right. Then we've got a suggestion that there's PII redactions to the remaining statements.

MR WINNEKE: Commissioner, insofar as those - whilst I'm not dealing with these particular witnesses, I'm confident that the matters that are the subject of an asserted claim for PII have not been - certainly haven't been established and we haven't accepted them. There are, obviously, other issues which are being dealt with currently by the Court of Appeal, but it's not accepted that, without the benefit of evidence, that those particular matters in those statements are the appropriate subject of a claim for public interest immunity.

COMMISSIONER: Well, for example, I've got - Ms Enbom, I've got Mr Allen's statement here. The one I have is unredacted completely, no shading or anything. Are there any bits in Mr Allen's statement that are PII claimable?

MS ENBOM: The version of the statement that Mr Orman's counsel showed me this morning - I think it was that one -

10:52:51	1	had a lot of redactions in it. Perhaps I can just have a
10:52:55	2	look at that. It's not a version I have.
10:53:02	4	COMMISSIONER: I've been handed one with some shadings.
10:53:08	5
10:53:09	6	MS ENBOM: Do you have, Commissioner, the version that was
10:53:10	7 8	sent to Mr Orman's solicitor?
10:53:12		COMMISSIONER: I don't know whether this was sent to
10:53:14		Mr Orman's solicitor. I have one with some shadings on it.
10:53:19	11
10:53:19	12	MS ENBOM: It's not a shaded version, it's a black boxed
10:53:22		version.
	14
10:53:28	15	COMMISSIONER: I don't have it. I'll see if we can get it.
10:53:30		ŭ
10:53:30	17	MS ENBOM: I have a hard copy here. Dr Button has given me
10:53:33		a hard copy. Perhaps I can hand that up.
	19
10:53:37	20	COMMISSIONER: I've been handed another copy now. I think
10:53:39	21	it's the same as the shaded version I've got. I can't see
10:53:55	22	that that's of critical PII interest, in the circumstances.
10:54:01	23
10:54:01	24	MS ENBOM: Yes. So the black boxing does reflect the
10:54:04	25	shading.
	26
10:54:05	27	COMMISSIONER: In fact, for example, you've PIIed the
10:54:06	28	footnote saying, "This person's identity is the subject of
10:54:09	29	a suppression order."
10:54:11	30
10:54:11	31	MS ENBOM: Yes, I can see that. This one reflects the
10:54:13	32	shading, but the version of the Hatt statement that counsel
10:54:19	33	for Mr Orman showed me earlier
	34
10:54:23	35	COMMISSIONER: Well, we're talking about Allen first.
10:54:25	36
10:54:25	37	MS ENBOM: Yes, we are, and it does seem to reflect
10:54:27	38	the
	39
10:54:28	40	COMMISSIONER: So there doesn't seem to be anything
10:54:31	41	critical there relevant to PII.
	42
10:54:33	43	MR WINNEKE: I agree, Commissioner.
	44
10:54:35	45	COMMISSIONER: Thank you. Next we'll go to the Hatt
10:54:38	46	statement, will we?

.26/06/19 2927

10:54:39 47

1 MS ENBOM: Mr Hatt's statement seems to be in a different 10:54:40 2 category. My instructions are, Commissioner, that those 10:54:44 3 redactions or shading in Mr Allen's statement are made for 10:55:14 4 two reasons; one being the suppression order and two being 10:55:19 5 a PII claim. 10:55:22 6 7 COMMISSIONER: A suppression order and? 10:55:24 8 10:55:28 MS ENBOM: And a PII claim. 9 10:55:29 10 COMMISSIONER: All of them? 10:55:30 11 10:55:31 12 Yes. MS ENBOM: Yes, they're my instructions.

COMMISSIONER: They're your instructions. All right. Including all the footnotes on the first page about suppression orders. I just can't understand that. I'm not - - -

MS ENBOM: Can I suggest this, Commissioner, because we're losing time and I know it's my fault that we're losing Can I suggest this: if, Commissioner, you accept the suggestion that Mr Orman's solicitor be present during the closed evidence of these witnesses about matters concerning Mr Orman, on an undertaking that the solicitor not disclose what happens in the closed hearing until Victoria Police has had an opportunity to review the transcript and make any PII claims, then it would make complete sense to adopt that same approach in relation to the witness statement, so that we would provide to Mr Orman's solicitor, to use during the closed session, the statement, with parts unredacted that concern Mr Orman, and so he'll have that at the Bar table while here for the It would be illogical to maintain the closed evidence. redactions if Mr Orman's solicitor is going to be here for the evidence that's relevant to him, on the undertaking.

So I can - with a little bit of time, I can get the statement for Mr Allen, I can amend it by hand to reveal the redactions that are relevant to Mr Orman and he'll have that while Mr Allen gives his evidence in private about matters that concern Mr Orman. Can I suggest that as a practical way forward?

MR WINNEKE: Commissioner, as far as I understand it, you've already determined this issue. It's impractical to have counsel who's appearing get up, leave, come back again. In my submission, unless there are matters which are appropriately and justifiably public interest immunity claims, in our submission they ought be present and they ought to have the unredacted statement.

COMMISSIONER: It was Ms Enbom's submission on that aspect that made me revisit the statements, but having revisited the statements, I'm not satisfied that they're legitimate

PII claims of such a nature that would warrant a departure from the procedure that I initially foreshadowed. So what I'm directing is that the statements be provided in a shaded form to the legal representatives of those given leave to appear in respect of these witnesses and those legal representatives will, of course, have given the necessary undertakings that have been discussed earlier, they will be present during the evidence of these witnesses in both public and private hearing and they will only discuss with their clients those aspects of the evidence that are relevant to them getting instructions for potential cross-examination of the witnesses and they will inform their clients of the non-publication orders and the criminal sanctions that would apply for any breach of those. All right. We'll continue now with Mr Allen in open session. I should say - did I give leave to Mr Kornhauser to appear? Mr Kornhauser, did I give you leave to appear?

MR KORNHAUSER: I don't think so, Commissioner. I don't think that matter was determined either way.

COMMISSIONER: No-one wants to speak against Mr Kornhauser having leave to appear? No? All right then. I'll give you leave to appear for the witnesses Allen, L'Estrange and Swindells.

MR KORNHAUSER: Thank you, Commissioner.

MS TITTENSOR: Commissioner, the witness who is appearing by video link on the screen is Andrew Paul Allen. If he might be sworn.

Are there any other matters in your diary that you wanted to bring to the Commissioner's attention?---There was one other matter that - and I don't know if I have the independent recollection of it - it was in relation to a meeting I had with then Senior Sergeant Gavan Ryan and we met Ms Gobbo and another solicitor in the vicinity of the Melbourne County Court, and I don't know whether I've got that date - yes, I have, sorry. It was prior to that. that would have been on Wednesday, 7 April 2004 and that was in the vicinity of Melbourne County Court, with Ms Gobbo and another solicitor, regarding a person she was representing at that time.

Thank you, Mr Allen. Do you have the diary entries with you?---I've got hard copies, yes.

Can you see a number on those diary entries starting VPL?---Yes, I can.

The meeting that you just referred to with Ms Gobbo, the diary entry for that meeting is the diary entry marked VPL.0005.0130.0005?---Yes, it is.

And the earlier meeting that you've just given evidence about, on 9 April 2004, do you have the diary entry for that meeting with you?---Yes, I do. That's on the top of the page, yes.

And is the number - is the VPL number for that entry VPL.0005.0130.0008?---Yes, that's correct.

Thank you, Mr Allen. Commissioner, that's the evidence-in-chief.

that, no. But the most recent documents I received in looking at those, I then ascertained that I had made an oversight and not included those two particular entries.

How was it brought to your attention that you had made that oversight?---I found those entries in reviewing that condensed number of extracts just in the last 24 hours or so.

Do you understand that the condensed version that was provided to you was provided as a result of a review by Commission staff of your diaries?---It may well have been, I'm not aware fully of how that occurred.

I might tender those diaries while I'm thinking about it, Commissioner. There were initial diaries provided to the Commission. I have the code number for the shaded form of those diaries, I'm not sure if it's a similar number for the fully redacted version. But the shaded version which will need to be at least not published for now is VPL.0005.0118.0001. Again, I think these have been redacted but they may need to be checked because mine's got some red markings about non-publication at the moment, but that's VPL.0005.0130.0001.

#EXHIBIT RC249 - Diary entries.

Mr Allen, you were a Detective Inspector with the Homicide Squad between 2000 and 2003; is that right?---That's correct, yes.

You were managing and overseeing murder investigations and suspicious missing persons and cold cases?---Yes, that's correct.

Then there was a jump from the Homicide Squad into the Purana Task Force in about August 2003?---Yes, there was a lead-up phase with regard to the initial murder investigations and then I formally took charge of the Task Force on and around August 2003.

That Task Force itself had been established a bit earlier that year; is that right?---It was not formally established until a bit later that year but there was some current investigations with a crew from the Homicide Squad that had been operating in the months prior.

In any event is it the case there came to be a second crew, so there were two crews operating, one with Swindells in charge and one with Gavan Ryan in charge?---Well if I could just perhaps indicate that I could - there were a number of investigation teams headed up by a Sergeant and over sighting some of those teams was Senior Sergeant Swindells had carriage of, or had line management of a number of those crews and Senior Sergeant Gavan Ryan had a number of other crews who were conducting investigations at the same time.

Did they have under them specific Sergeants operating in a line control under them?---Yes, that's my recollection.

So you wouldn't have one Sergeant being directed by multiple Senior Sergeants?---No, there was - it was quite a unified arrangement but there was a delineation to assist in the various investigations being managed at that time.

You sat over the top of Swindells and Ryan?---Yes, that's correct.

Is it the case that when you moved out of Purana in October 2004 that Gavan Ryan succeeded you?---That is possibly quite correct, although I did have a recollection that it may have been handed over to Jim O'Brien at that time. I'm not 100 per cent clear on that.

We may have some understanding that ultimately he does take charge but it might be another year after that?---Okay, yeah, I can't dispute that, yes.

Although maybe there's some acting positions

1 involved?---Right, that could well be the case.

11:14:55 11:15:00 4 In terms of Stuart Bateson, do you recall who was his line manager?---From recollection I think it was Mr Swindells.

6 11:15:10

When Ryan came on board was there any changing of those lines of reporting?---I'm not entirely sure. It's very difficult to recall.

I appreciate it is some time ago. Were you aware of any tensions between Bateson and Swindells?---Not specifically. Look, there may have been some robust discussions that occurred which would occur in most workplaces and most squads I've worked in, but I've got no specific recollection of that.

In terms of the establishment of the Purana Task Force, was Assistant Commissioner of Crime Overland involved in that establishment?---Yes, I'm pretty sure he would have given the final approval for the formal establishment.

Is it the case that he was closely involved in monitoring the work of the Purana Task Force?---Yes, that'd be a fair comment, yes.

And were there regular steering committees or executive management group meetings discussing the workings that were going on and the investigations that were going on?---Yep, I'd probably describe them more so as briefings rather than steering committees, et cetera.

What would you understand the difference to be?---Oh well, one would be a formalised steering committee or a group set But my recollection is that it was more so up for that. briefings up to my line manager who was a Superintendent at Above him was a Commander at the Crime the time. Department and then the Assistant Commissioner. more of briefings rather than being directed by committee, to my recollection anyway.

Would you be involved in briefings of the Assistant Commissioner or would you simply brief your line manager and he would brief the Assistant Commissioner?---No, both types of briefings occurred where it would be, you know, my line managers and up to the Assistant Commissioner, so that from my recollection occurred on a number of occasions.

Were there documents recording the briefings or were they simply a matter of recording in diaries?---I don't specifically recall. Probably more so diary entries. There would have been on occasions, and I think I do recall a number of briefing papers that would have been submitted, but as to the content I'd struggle to recall exactly what they might have been.

In terms of names of each up the line from you, who was your superior?---So the Superintendent in charge of the division over sighting me was Superintendent John Whitmore and above him was the Commander for Crime who was Commander Purton at one time and there were a number of Acting Commanders if I remember rightly, and then Assistant Commissioner Overland.

Did the briefings go beyond that to the Chief Commissioner?---There probably were some briefings taken to the Chief Commissioner by more likely than not Mr Overland.

Can you recall yourself being involved in any?---I could It's very difficult to recall specifically but I could have.

During the course of Purana operating was it the case when matters went to court there were generally a lot more investigators that would go along and watch proceedings than would ordinarily be the case in other investigations? In other words there was a heavier presence of lawyers sorry, of investigators at court, is that the case?---From time to time perhaps for security purposes maybe and other matters, perhaps involvement with the OPP. I really don't specifically recall too many of those occasions.

You mention in your statement that you may have seen and spoken to Ms Gobbo at court when she was acting for accused Did you usually attend court as a Detective Inspector?---No, not often. Probably towards the latter part of the Task Force era, that first Purana phase I would term it as, and if I had any other matters or if I was in the vicinity going to the OPP, something along those lines. But that was my recollection of my dealings, predominantly my dealings with Ms Gobbo.

When you say you might have attended court during the first part of the Purana phase, why specifically would you as a Detective Inspector attend court?---Oh, well, could be for You indicate in your statement having attended the scene of a number of murders yourself during that period of time. One was the Hodson murders in May of 2004?---Yes, I did attend that scene but that was not one of the Purana investigations.

There was some issue apparently that night about the attendance of Peter De Santo from ESD going to the scene, did you know about that?---Yeah, well I had to - obviously there's a diary entry in relation to that which occurred and, yeah, I was instructed to attend at the scene and await the arrival of the on-call Homicide team.

Were there any instructions given in relation to ensuring that Andrew Hodson didn't speak to ESD investigators on the night?---If I'm able to - if you're able to direct me to that diary extract I could provide you with some accurate answers.

I might come back to that if I need to. Do you have any recollection of that from your own memory now?---Not so much from my memory but refreshing my memory from those diary extract. I believe there's commentary there in relation to that issue.

Do you have a recollection of there being an issue about ESD being at the scene that night?---Yes, again on refreshing my memory from that diary entry, yes, I believe there was.

Was there concern about the optics of the situation if it might be considered that police were involved in the crime?---I'm wondering if you could put that to me in another way and explain that, please?

Was there concern that the public or the media might become aware of ESD involvement in a murder investigation and put two and two together that there might be police involvement in a murder?---I'm not sure whether that was the actual issue at the time but there was some sensitivity around it because of the ESD involvement. I recall that.

I think on the night, and again I'd have to review my diary entry to give an accurate response, that I was given a direction to attend by the then Commander of Crime and to hold the scene until Senior Sergeant Bezzina from Homicide attended.

Sorry, I was just trying to find the actual diary entry but I may come back to it. You indicate in your statement to the Commission that your solicitors asked you if you recall having a conversation with Ms Gobbo in 2003 in relation to a threat to her by Mr Veniamin over his unhappiness about her representation of Lewis Moran. Do you recall that?---Yes, I recall being asked that, yes.

21

Do you recall having an understanding that there was seemingly a belief on the part of Mr Veniamin that Ms Gobbo shouldn't be representing those in the underworld from an opposing side?---I believe I responded that I had no recollection of that issue at that time.

27

You have no recollection of the issue at all?---No, not having a conversation with her in relation to that or that particular matter. And in mid-2003 I think - mid-2003 I was still at the Homicide Squad when the early stages of Purana was occurring and I don't have any recollection of any threats against Ms Gobbo occurring at that time.

11:27:21 35

11:27:28 36

Are you aware what led your instructing solicitor to ask you that question, was that information provided to you?---No, I'm not aware why that was put.

Something was said to have occurred in 2007 to her handlers which implicated me in that particular matter, but again I've got no recollection of that occurring back in 2003.

11:27:56 43 11:27:59 44

45

Just to clarify, were you told that she'd told her SDU handlers that she'd been approached firstly by Swindells saying that he knew about this threat and then later she'd spoken to you about it as well?---I just remember I was alleged to have been involved in that conversation regarding some threats concerning Veniamin. But I've got no recollection of that at all.

11:28:03 46 11:28:09 47

Do you have a recollection that you might have spoken to her about those issues at a later time?---No, I don't There's nothing there and there's nothing that I've found in my diaries which would indicate that I would have had any involvement in that.

We'll come back to it later but in terms of those diary entries, your initial statement to the Commission was that you didn't remember meeting her at all but it seems from the diary entries that you've read that you had at least two meetings with her; is that right?---Well I'd call it one out of the ordinary meeting, the one where she rang and asked me to come and speak with her in South Melbourne. The other one was more so in relation to court matters, in the vicinity of the court.

Do you think you might have spoken to her about these issues during one of those meetings?---Look, I haven't got a specific recollection of that.

The information that the Commission has is that Mr Swindells approached Ms Gobbo about this issue after a Do you recall whether you went to bail variation hearing. court with Mr Swindells at all in relation to any bail variation hearings for Lewis Moran?---No, I don't believe -I can't recall that, no. Are you saying that that's mid-2003?

Possibly later in 2003 but it seems as though you might not have hit the - I think the bail variation hearing is likely to have occurred in September 2003 and you would have been at the Purana Task Force by that stage?---Yeah, I would have been but I haven't got a recollection of going to a bail hearing for Lewis Moran at all.

Would it be the case - sorry, I withdraw that. It seems as though Mr Swindells on that occasion, well he says one of the reasons he spoke to her was that he wanted to convey to her that Purana had extensive information. He said in his statement that Mr Veniamin was the first target of Purana and they wanted to know as much as they could about him.

I just want to ask you about your awareness of Ms Gobbo around that stage. You would have known that she was someone that represented various people within the underworld ranks?---You're dating this September 2003?

From that period of time into 2004?---Yes, yes, she - I was aware that she represented a number of criminal persons.

And that was something that Purana would keep a track of, who was representing who?---Yeah, no more than any other lawyer representing some of the other accused from my recollection.

Would Purana keep a track of who was visiting prisoners in custody?---Quite possibly. In September and beyond September 2003 you're putting?

Yes?---Yes, quite possibly. We needed to have a good working relationship with Corrections in relation to some of the accused people in custody.

It was good intelligence for Purana to know who was visiting who; is that right?---I can't say whether it was good intelligence. There may have been advantages in that but I can't recall to be honest.

Ms Gobbo had quite a media presence around that time?---From memory, yes. She did appear on a number of media stories I believe.

It was well-known she was representing, for instance, Tony Mokbel?---Yeah, I believe so. I couldn't say exactly at what stage that might have been but certainly she was representing a number of people that we had an interest in.

And people associated with Tony Mokbel, Carl Williams and his family?---Yep, correct, yep. I recall there was an association/relationship with Williams' family and Ms Gobbo.

Are those the types of things, although you don't have any memory now, those are things you would have been very aware of at the time?---More likely than not, yes - you know, with ongoing proceedings, probably, but because of, as I said, the number of concurrent matters that were happening at the time, they kind of blend, if I can use that expression.

There would be something going wrong if the legal representative was putting someone else's interests ahead of that of their client?---I'm not sure what that means. Are you able to rephrase that for me?

Well, if a legal representative was acting in the best interests of police instead of acting in the best interests of your client, that would not be appropriate?---Correct, and I never formed that view.

During this period of time that we're dealing with, you would have been aware that there was a new informer management policy within Victoria Police that came into effect?---You would have to assist me by giving me some dates as to changes. There were a number of iterations to the informer management procedures and policies over a period of time, so you would have to assist me with time dating that, please.

Very succinctly, I hope, do you recall that there was a review by Mr Purton as a result of some goings on in the Drug Squad?---I do recall that Mr Purton did a review of the Major Drug Investigation Division, as I think it was then.

And do you recall that one of the things that flowed from that was a new informer management policy within Victoria Police outlining circumstances in which informers ought be registered and the procedures and so forth?---Yeah, I couldn't dispute that. I can't specifically recall when that might have been, but I accept that.

We understand initially there was a Chief Commissioner's instruction in about September, maybe, of 2003 and then it was seemingly ratified the following year. But in any case, you would have been aware of those new policies at the time?---Yep, I'm sure I would have been at that time.

Were policies such as those complied with by those in Purana or were Purana considered - was it considered that Purana could exempt itself from those policies?---So the

I think we might have reached a stage where we might have to go into private hearing, Commissioner.

COMMISSIONER: Yes, all right then. Pursuant to s.24 of the Inquiries Act, access to the inquiry during the evidence of this witness, Andrew Allen, is limited to legal representatives and staff assisting the Royal Commission and the following parties with leave to appear in the private hearing and their legal representatives: of Victoria, Victoria Police, Director of Public Prosecutions and Office of Public Prosecutions, Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions, Ms Nicola Gobbo, the SDU handlers, Farouk Orman and Witness . representatives accredited by the Royal Commission are allowed to be present in the hearing room. The hearing is to be recorded but not streamed or broadcast. There is to be no publication of any matters which are subject to suppression orders affecting the individuals and evidence given before the Commission. A copy of this order is to be posted on the door of the hearing room.

Do we need to adjourn to go into closed hearing? No. All right then.

MS ENBOM: Commissioner, may I please approach Ms Tittensor just for a moment?

COMMISSIONER: Sure. Perhaps we'll just have a five-minute adjournment to give everyone a break.

MS TITTENSOR: Just to be clear, I'm going to ask you some questions about a time after you've left the Purana Task Force as such. It seems as though from 23 March 2005 Mr Bateson starts receiving information from Ms Gobbo. Were you aware following your leaving the Purana Task Force that Mr Bateson started receiving intelligence, effectively, from Ms Gobbo?---No, I wasn't.

That she began speaking with him not as a legal representative of clients perhaps but rather providing him with information about potential criminal activities by her clients and perhaps by other lawyers?---No, I've never been made aware of that.

That she was advising him that legal professional privilege might be being abused by one solicitor who was using it to pass messages between various people in the underworld, including Mokbel and Williams, both of whom she'd been representing, are you aware of that?---No, not aware of that at all.

That she was advising him about matters such as caveats and loans in relation to a George Williams' property, including potentially fraudulent loans at a time she was representing George Williams?---No.

And that Detective Bateson was asking her to find out a bit more about such matters, were you aware of that?---No, I wasn't aware of that.

That she was indicating at a time that she was representing Tony Mokbel that not enough attention was being paid to his restrained assets, are you aware of that?---No, I wasn't aware of that.

That she was advising him about payments made for representation to solicitors and barristers and indicating that perhaps such funds were the proceeds of crime, are you aware of that?---No, I'm not aware of that.

That she was giving advice as to questions that might be asked at ACC examination, aware of that?---No, I'm not aware of that.

That she was indicating the state of mind of a certain person after the ACC examination, that was someone that she'd been involved in providing advice to, aware of that?---No, I'm not aware of that.

Do you accept that those kinds of matters raise serious concerns about breaches of legal professional privilege and confidentiality?---Are you asking me in an experiential position?

Hearing those matters that Ms Gobbo has conveyed - assuming Ms Gobbo conveyed such matters to Detective Bateson in relation to people that she was representing at the time, do you accept that those matters raise serious concerns that she might be breaching legal professional privilege or confidentiality?---On what you've put to me I would consider that would be a possibility.

Would you accept that if those things were true that Ms Gobbo couldn't possibly continue to act in the client's best interests at the same time that she was providing such information to the police?---Yeah, I believe that if that was the position then that is - you know, that's quite a dangerous position to be in as far as a lawyer is concerned.

If you had remained Detective Inspector of Purana and those types of matters were being reported to you as occurring, what would you have done?---I would have had an immediate cessation of any of those activities and I would have called an urgent review of anything that involved Ms Gobbo should matters such as that have come to my attention.

You would have immediately elevated it up the chain of command?---Yes, I would, like everything, take into account all the facts and circumstances and made an evaluation from there.

And at the very least sought some legal advice about those matters?---I would have thought so, yes.

In October 2004 you became chief of staff to Chief Commissioner of Police Nixon; is that right?---Yes, it was an acting role at that time.

Would you as chief of staff attend meetings or briefings about Purana related matters?---No, not unless matters arose that required any attention in my role as the acting awareness of Purana related developments and matters Chief Commissioner Nixon was?---I really couldn't say in detail. I mean there were obviously briefings that I wasn't privy to from other members of Command at that time. know, it was a really busy, you know, and complex role and there were a number of concurrent matters there that one had to deal with and I don't recall any specific briefings regarding any issues for Purana past my time there.

The circumstances that I've just outlined to you in relation to Detective Bateson receiving some information from Ms Gobbo, you accept might be of the nature that if it got out could cause reputational damage to Victoria Police?---If there was a clear conflict and concerns which might - my concern would be affecting any impending prosecutions. Yes, that could damage reputation.

Would you expect if that was going on, that conduct, that that would be run past Chief Commissioner Nixon?---Oh, as I said I was out of that role at that time, out of the Purana role, and really was divorced from the Crime Department and the Task Force. So that would be up to others to evaluate and escalate as required.

with Mr Trichias now.

MR WINNEKE: Yes, Mr Trichias.

COMMISSIONER:

In respect of that, I revoke the order made COMMISSIONER: yesterday as to closing the court hearing concerning part of the evidence of Peter Trichias and instead I order, pursuant to s.24 of the Inquiries Act access to the inquiry during the evidence of Peter Trichias is limited to legal representatives and staff assisting the Royal Commission and the following parties with leave to appear in the private hearing and their legal representatives: the State of Victoria, Victoria Police, Director of Public Prosecutions, the Office of Public Prosecutions, the Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions, Ms Nicola Gobbo, SDU handlers and Evangelos Goussis. Media representatives accredited by the Royal Commission are allowed to be present in the hearing room. The hearing is to be recorded but not streamed or broadcast. There is to be publication of any matters which are subject to suppression orders affecting the individuals and evidence given before the Commission. A copy of this order is to be posted on the hearing room door.

I think we have to resume in private hearing
