UPON RESUMING IN OPEN COURT: 1 2 12:34:19 3 COMMISSIONER: Thank you. Yes, all right. We're no longer 12:34:19 12:34:15 4 in closed hearing, we're now in open hearing. 5 12:34:18 6 MR WOODS: Thank you, Commissioner. 12:34:20 7 Yes, Mr Woods. 8 COMMISSIONER: 12:34:21 9 12:34:24 Mr Hatt, you've given evidence - I'm just going 12:34:24 10 MR WOODS: to pass you a Post-it Note. I'd like you just to have a 12:34:27 11 It just identifies some names of people and 12:34:33 12 look at that. the identity that I'll give them in these questions. 12:34:39 13 You've given evidence during the closed session about, 12:34:43 14 firstly, what I refer to on that Post-it Note as the first 12:34:48 15 12:34:53 16 person being arrested for a serious crime a good deal of 12:35:00 17 years ago?---Yes. 18 12:35:04 19 The first person, you say, of their own volition agreed to provide information in relation to some other individuals, 12:35:09 20 that's a fair summary of your evidence?---Yes. 12:35:13 21 22 12:35:17 23 And you're aware that, after making that decision, he asked 12:35:23 24 for Nicola Gobbo to represent him - this is the first 12:35:30 25 person?---It eventually happened, yes. 26 12:35:36 27 And as part of Nicola Gobbo's representation of the first 12:35:38 28 person, Nicola Gobbo was provided by you with statements that the first person was willing to make to assist police 12:35:44 29 in relation to other matters, that's right?---She was shown 12:35:48 30 12:35:52 31 a copy, which was then taken back from her. She wasn't 12:35:54 32 given - provided with - - -33 12:35:56 34 No, firstly, you took them to her chambers?---Yes. 35 She reviewed them in front of you?---Yes. 36 12:35:59 37 She suggested some changes should be made for her client's 12:36:03 38 12:36:06 39 statement - to her client's statement?---She suggested -12:36:11 40 she made some comments, which I've documented in my diary. 41 12:36:14 42 And then those suggestions were taken back to that first person?---From a police perspective, I believe 12:36:18 43 one of them was. 12:36:25 44 45

. 28/06/19 3193

All right?---I'm not sure about the others.

12:36:26 46

47

1 One of the things that that first person was doing - or one 12:36:29 12:36:33 2 of the people he was implicating was the second person on 3 that Post-it Note in front of you, that's correct?---That's 12:36:37 12:36:41 4 correct. 12:36:41 6 And he was implicating the second person in a serious 7 crime?---Yes. 12:36:45 9 And at some stage after the second person was arrested for 12:36:49 12:36:53 10 that serious crime, it's known that Nicola Gobbo, at that second person's request, came on as that person's 12:36:59 11 12:37:03 12 representative, legal representative?---Yes. 13 12:37:10 14 And despite Gobbo having assisted the first person provide information against the second person, your evidence is 12:37:14 15 12:37:17 16 that you saw no issue with Nicola Gobbo representing the 12:37:21 17 second person; is that right?---I disagree with your 12:37:25 18 terminology used. 19 12:37:27 20 Right?---When you say - assisting to provide a statement is I would suggest that she represented the person 12:37:30 21 12:37:33 22 to get the best deal they possibly could in the 12:37:38 23 circumstances. 24 12:37:39 25 By providing information to police?---By the witness providing a written statement and providing evidence. 12:37:43 26 27 12:37:46 28 That Nicola Gobbo suggested amendments to on behalf of the 12:37:49 29 first person?---Sorry - -30 12:37:57 31 She did, didn't she?---Repeat the question again. 12:38:00 32

Nicola Gobbo suggested changes, at least one of which were made, to the first person's statement?---Yes, but it referred to the indemnity in the statement, not the matters within the statement.

Well, one of them did, but the other one referred to his belief in a particular set of circumstances, do you agree with that?---That was a comment that she made on that particular visit, yes.

All right?---Which I diarised.

47

You accept that she was representing that person in those circumstances?---Yes.

All right. Going back to my question, you see no issue with Nicola Gobbo representing the second person in those circumstances; is that correct?---I personally don't, no.

12:38:44 512:38:51 6

12:38:54 7

4

If a junior officer came to you today with a concern precisely the same as the one that I've just pointed out to you, you would tell that person there is no problem with that situation?---No, I would not. I would suggest that that person or the member would have to tread carefully and continually risk assess what was going on.

12:38:56 812:38:59 912:39:03 10

11 12:39:09 12

In any event, the second person sought a benefit of their own and, in doing so, provided information in relation to a third person; is that right?---Yes.

12:40:51 44 12:40:56 45

46 12:40:58 47 It eventually became known to you, but not immediately at the time, that that third person also asked for Nicola Gobbo to represent him in relation to the matters that the second person had implicated him in?---I've since been told that he requested her at one stage.

All right. It was known to Purana in the period that on at least three occasions, Nicola Gobbo turned up to court to represent the third person in relation to that particular matter - not known to you at the time but would have been known to Purana?---I can't say whether Purana knew about that. It certainly wasn't known to me.

It would have been known to the informant, because we talked about that before?---I would suspect so, yes.

All right?---If in fact it did occur.

Yes. In the process of putting together a brief of evidence - firstly, I take it that that's something that you've had to do a number of times through your professional career?---Yes.

Not so much these days in your Inspector's role, but presumably in the past?---Yes.

You agree that one of the things that you are attempting to do as an informant is to put all of the things that might assist the prosecution, firstly, they go into the brief of evidence?---Yes.

And, secondly, all of the things that might assist the defence also go into the brief of evidence?---Yes, within relevance.

9

If they're relevant?---Yes.

5 12:41:09 6

12:41:08

12:41:12

12:41:16

And I assume that relevance doesn't only apply to the latter, it applies to the former as well?---Correct.

8

Things that might assist the prosecution?---Yes.

10 12:41:18 11

12:41:21 12

12:41:25 13

12:41:29 14

12:41:34 15

The reason, as an informant, that you are putting that second category of things into a brief of evidence is that you have an obligation to ensure that the legal process plays out fairly for an accused person, that's why those things that might assist the defence are put into a brief of evidence, that's true, isn't it?---Yes.

12:41:37 16

12:41:44 18 12:41:47 19

12:41:53 20

12:41:55 21 12:41:59 22

12:42:02 23

12:42:06 24

25

12:42:10 26 27

12:42:12 28 29

12:42:14 30 12:42:21 31

12:42:23 32 33

12:42:25 34 12:42:29 35

12:42:33 36 12:42:36 37

12:42:40 38 12:42:43 39

12:42:45 40 12:42:51 41

42

12:42:56 43 12:43:02 44

12:43:06 45 12:43:09 46

12:43:12 47

In circumstances where there is a legal practitioner who is acting in the circumstances that I've just set out now, do you agree that there is a risk that the legal process might not play out fairly in relation to the second person or the third person when it was the same legal practitioner who'd represented the first, second and third person each giving information about each other?---Potentially.

There's a risk, isn't there?---Potentially.

Is there or isn't there a risk?---Potentially.

So there is?---Well, there'd be an ongoing risk assessment done in relation to the circumstances at any given time, so potentially.

All right. Do you agree that the prosecution and Victoria Police have a role in identifying those sorts of conflicts and doing something about them? Where there is a conflict of a legal practitioner who has been acting for a number of people where there's a threat of a conflict, Victoria Police has a role in identifying that and doing something about it?---Again, potentially. The decision of the person that requires the representation is also important.

That's true, as long as they're apprised of all of the facts. If they don't know that that legal representative has represented other people who have implicated themselves, then they're not really in a position to make that decision, are they?---Possibly not.

12:45:17 46 12:45:20 47 Firstly, you're aware of the investigation and charges that arose out of the burglary at Dublin Street in September 2003, you know generally about that issue - I'm not saying you were involved?---Only what I've seen in the media.

In that proceeding - and Mr Gregor gave evidence before the Commission previously - there was a question that was asked internally about whether it was the case that Nicola Gobbo could or could not act for Terry Hodson in circumstances where she was acting for another person. Do you know about that?---No.

Mr Gregor gave evidence that Ms Gobbo was told that in fact she wasn't able to because of a conflict of interest that she had acting for two people whose interests didn't align Now, that was the evidence that he gave. with each other. Now, accepting that, am I right to say that a cynical person might look at Victoria Police's practices in this regard as when a conflict suits Victoria Police's purposes, they won't do anything about it and when it doesn't suit their purposes, they will do something about that conflict?---I can't comment on that.

That's the situation that we've just gone through, isn't it, in relation to the first person, second person, third person on the one hand where no issue was taken, and the matters involving Mr Hodson on the other hand, is that a fair reflection?---No, I can't agree with that because I'm not aware of the circumstances around each of those cases.

Nothing further, Commissioner.

COMMISSIONER: Mr Chettle, you wanted to have some - - -

MR CHETTLE: I did.

COMMISSIONER: Remember that we're in public session now and the suppression orders apply.

MR CHETTLE: I do, Commissioner. None of the matters relate to suppression orders.

<CROSS-EXAMINED BY MR CHETTLE:</pre>

Very briefly, would you look at paragraph 48 of your statement, please, Inspector. It's a reference to your diary recording a conversation with Detective Sergeant 12:45:27 1 12:45:32 2 Bourne, do you see that?---I do, yes.

> You know who Bourne is - it's a pseudonym applied to a particular member?---I do, yes.

I take it that comes to be in your statement because your solicitors drew your attention to the fact that your diaries recorded a conversation with a member of the SDU?---I'm not sure whether it was my diary recording that or whether it was from another source.

From some other source?---Correct.

They may have got an ICR, or something, that has your name on it?---Possibly.

As a matter of caution, you put it in your statement, but you had no idea whether the information you got about Mr Gatto and the other name came from Gobbo or anywhere else, I take it?---No, I wasn't aware of the source of that information.

As far as the SDU were concerned in relation to all the sources they handled, they were particularly keen to ensure that they maintained security around the identity of the sources they were working with?---Correct.

In that regard, can I take you to paragraph 47, which Mr Woods asked you about. He asked you about a meeting with the SDU members, that you have no recollection of. Do you see that paragraph there?---I do.

Let me refresh your memory and see if this helps. had surveillance officers working on Mr Gatto. Mr Gatto and Ms Gobbo were out together socialising and the surveillance officers lost them. They then rang Purana and said, "Ask the source's handlers where she is." Does that ring any bells with you, and that caused SDU great concern about her security?---Yes, I recall that being the case.

And that's what that paragraph relates to, isn't it?---Yes.

The fact that the surveillance officer referred to talking to her handler was the problem, wasn't it?---Yes.

Mr Purton's evidence was quoted to you wherein he did say that in about 2006, everybody and anybody in the Police 12:47:54 1 12:47:59 2 Department knew that Nicola Gobbo was a source. In your 3 recollection, that's totally wrong, isn't it?---Yes. 12:48:05 4 By perhaps into 2010, 2012, a lot more people knew what had 5 12:48:08 happened at that end of the spectrum than when they did 12:48:15 7 back in 2006?---Yes. 12:48:19 8

Lastly, in paragraph 15 of your statement, you refer to a passage Mr Woods took you to. "Many within Victoria Police, including me, saw Ms Gobbo as being closely aligned with Carl Williams and Tony Mokbel's crews, in that she was a lawyer but also someone who was an active part of the criminal enterprises that Purana was trying to dismantle. I understood this also involved her becoming close personal friends with organised crime figures". You told Mr Woods that she wasn't always a lawyer. It was obvious, from your observations and intelligence that you had about her role, that she had found herself in positions where she would be, or could be, a conduit of information between various criminals?---Yes.

That documents might be moved through her or information conveyed into prison to other - as I think we discussed before, somebody running messages in and out of gaols to various people?---I suspected that was the case.

And as to she was high profile as publicly involved, personally I think you say, with these serious criminals?---Yes.

Commissioner, I sent to the court, the Commission, a photograph I wish to show the witness.

COMMISSIONER: Yes, all right then.

MR CHETTLE: Have you seen that particular photograph?---Yes, I've seen it in the media.

That's Ms Gobbo in the middle?---It is.

That's Benjamin Veniamin on the left - on her right but on the left as I look at it?---That's Andrew Veniamin, yes.

Andrew, sorry, not Ben. The man with his arm around her is Carl Williams?---Correct.

He'll be a relatively short 12:53:01 29 witness, but I won't finish him before lunch. 12:53:07 30 31 COMMISSIONER: Let's make a start. 12:53:09 32 Will we be going into closed session with him also? 12:53:14 33 12:53:17 34 12:53:18 35 Pretty soon after we start. MR WOODS: 36 12:53:20 37 COMMISSIONER: We might be able to get his open hearing done before lunch. We're remaining in open hearing, just 12:53:22 38 12:53:32 39 to clarify that. 12:53:33 40 12:53:34 41 Commissioner, just while someone's searching for MS ENBOM: 12:53:37 42 Mr L'Estrange, may I raise two quick matters? 43 12:53:40 44 COMMISSIONER: Of course. 12:53:42 45 12:53:42 46 MS ENBOM: The first is the Commissioner has, obviously, 12:53:44 47 granted leave to Victoria Police's legal representatives to

1 be present during closed hearings, but may we also seek 12:53:48 12:53:54 2 permission for Victoria Police's media unit personnel to 3 also be present during closed hearings? 12:53:56 4 12:53:57 COMMISSIONER: What's the reason for that? 5 12:53:57 12:54:00 6 The media unit often receive enquiries from the 7 MS ENBOM: 12:54:00 12:54:03 8 press and the media unit people would like to be in an 9 informed position to respond to those enquiries. 12:54:08 10 COMMISSIONER: I see. 12:54:12 11 And someone in your team has spoken 12:54:14 12 to them about the significance and importance of the orders 12:54:16 13 that have been made in terms of protecting the individuals? 12:54:20 14 MS ENBOM: Yes, I'm sure that has happened. If it hasn't, 12:54:20 15 12:54:23 16 it will. 17 12:54:23 18 COMMISSIONER: It needs be. And any notes they make must be treated confidentially. 12:54:26 19 12:54:29 20 MS ENBOM: Yes, of course. 12:54:29 21 22 23 It's a matter of grave importance. COMMISSIONER: 12:54:30 12:54:32 24 12:54:32 25 Yes. Thank you, Commissioner. MS ENBOM: The second matter is - - -26 27 28 COMMISSIONER: Did you want to be heard on that, Mr Woods? 12:54:34 29 12:54:37 12:54:37 30 MR WOODS: I'm not quite sure of their capacity and what 12:54:40 31 their role is, but it might be appropriate, in those circumstances, that they seek accreditation in the usual 12:54:42 32 12:54:44 33 course and I assume they would be granted it on that basis. If their role is to provide assistance to Victoria Police 12:54:48 34 12:54:53 35 with communications, then it's really in the nature of a media representative, I would have thought. 12:54:57 36 It might also 12:55:02 37 mean that the Commission can regulate those processes in relation to that individual as it can in relation to the 12:55:06 38 12:55:08 39 other media individuals, but that's just something I'll 12:55:11 40 We don't take issue with the person being here, 12:55:13 41 it's just the basis on which they are here. 42

How many of them are there?

There's usually one

12:55:38	4 5	MS ENBOM: I'm instructed there's no more than five.
12:55:41	6	COMMISSIONER: All right. They should all be spoken to.

12:55:47	8 9	MS ENBOM: Yes.

12:57:04	41	confused about what is allowed to be reported from - what
12:57:12		evidence given in a closed hearing is allowed to be
12:57:14		reported and a number of people at the Bar table have also
12:57:18	44	raised with me some confusion about that topic. It's also
12:57:22	45	a matter that confused us a little bit overnight.

.28/06/19 3203

12:57:27 47

Commissioner, I would seek some clarification as to what it is that the accredited media are permitted to report when the hearing is in camera.

COMMISSIONER: The orders I made are very clear. If you want, we can have the last order I made taken off the door and I can read it to you.

MR WOODS: With respect, Commissioner, in my submission they are perfectly clear and what they say - - -

COMMISSIONER: Could we get the order down and we can read them?

MR WOODS: Yes.

COMMISSIONER: Get the most recent order down. My associate might have a copy. I can understand the confusion because there has been some change to the form of the orders made which were a bit rough initially and were refined so that they protected the people who need to be protected because of the suppression orders and the legislative requirements.

MS ENBOM: Yes.

COMMISSIONER: But nothing more, and that might have been the reason for the confusion. At the moment the order as to publication is that there's to be no publication of any matters which are subject to suppression orders affecting the individuals and evidence given before the Commission.

MS ENBOM: Yes. My understanding is that what happens in an in camera hearing can be reported subject to compliance with suppression orders made here or elsewhere.

COMMISSIONER: Yes, that's correct. That's correct. The reason we're doing it in camera or in camera in private is to add that additional layer of protection.

MS ENBOM: Yes.

COMMISSIONER: To make sure that nobody who had an interest in doing harm to these people could find out about the evidence that's being given.

MS ENBOM: Yes, I understand. Thank you Commissioner.

Paragraph 7, is there a change you wanted to make in paragraph 7?---Yes, paragraph 7. "I was a member of the Purana Task Force from October 2003." It should read to November 2005.

Thank you. Then if we move to paragraph 20, is there a correction to make in paragraph 20?---Yes, it's the same, by November 2005.

If you could please move forward to paragraph 44?---Yes, the third sentence there after it says "he was remanded in August 2004", it should read "he was remanded in October 2003".

Thank you. Are there any other corrections to make to your statement?---No, that's it.

Is the statement now true and correct?---Yes, it is.

I'll tender the statement, Commissioner, in an unredacted and redacted form.

<CROSS-EXAMINED BY MR WOODS:</pre>

I'm going to ask you some questions in open session for those watching the webcast and then we'll adjourn for lunch and I'll ask you some questions in closed session. You joined Victoria Police in 1996; is that right?---I joined the Academy in 95, I graduated in 96.

You went to Flemington for four years as a

You went to Flemington for four years as a Constable?---Yes.

And then after a number of roles, just immediately prior to Purana, March 03 to October 03, you were a Detective Senior Constable in the Homicide Squad?---Yes, I was on secondment to Homicide.

Did that role entail dealing with any of the murders that occurred in the underworld?---It was - I was seconded there to investigate - it was a cold case murder that had organised crime connections, it was the murder of John Furlan.

That was the focus of your entire period there?---I was also on one of the on-call crew. So whilst I was doing that cold case I was attending - - -

There was an A and a B crew, is that right, or something like that?---Yes.

Then you were asked in the early stages of Purana to join, were you one of the first people who joined Purana?---No, there was - initially there was a small set up of Purana. I'm not sure, it was basically one crew I think was taken offline. Then when it went to be expanded they were asking from members from all regions had to be seconded in, and whilst I was already in at Homicide they let me stay there and be seconded to the Task Force.

All right. You stayed there essentially for two years, October 03 to November 05?---Yes.

In the role of Detective Senior Constable during that period?---Yes.

And then after that you went back to Homicide, so the secondment finished?---Yes, I was gazetted then to Homicide.

I don't know whether you heard the evidence of Mr Hatt - did you hear Mr Hatt's evidence?---No. 13:05:22 1 2 3 I was asking him some questions about the crossover between 13:05:25 13:05:28 4 Purana and Homicide and as I understood it there was a fair 5 bit of crossover because homicide's occurred, sometimes 13:05:32 13:05:38 6 they might be a Purana one, sometimes they might be Homicide and sometimes it be a bit of both, is that a fair 7 13:05:41 13:05:44 8 description?---Yes, that's a fair description, yes. 9 13:05:46 10 After that you were promoted to lead the Human Source Management Unit?---No, I was promoted to the, or what was 13:05:49 11 13:05:54 12 then the Security and Organised Crime Intelligence Unit and I did a, whilst I was there I was seconded for about a 13:05:57 13 three month period to the Human Source Management Unit. 13:06:01 14 15 13:06:04 16 Just speaking in general terms at this stage, have you had 13:06:09 17 experience since 96 of handling human sources 13:06:14 18 personally?---Yes. 19 13:06:16 20 Was that during your role - well did that begin as a Constable at Flemington or did it start later on?---There 13:06:21 21 13:06:24 22 was probably some minor source handling at Flemington CI, 13:06:29 23 most of it would have been post-Purana Task Force. 24 13:06:35 25 During Purana were you managing sources for Purana then? --- No. 13:06:37 26 27 13:06:40 28 The people in your crew at Purana, your crew was led by Detective Sergeant Bateson?---Yes. 13:06:46 29 30 13:06:49 31 And Detective Senior Constable Hatt and Kerley were both in the crew as well?---Yes. 13:06:53 32 33 13:06:54 34 Yourself and who else?---We had a Senior Constable who was 13:06:58 35 on the crew for part of it. 36 13:07:01 37 Who was?---Craig Milne. 38 13:07:05 39 Anyone else?---I think that's it. Commission and counsel assisting the Commission in regards 15:09:05 1 2 to cross-examination of this witness and eliciting relevant 15:09:08 3 evidence of - -15:09:12 4 COMMISSIONER: Yes, what do you say, 5 I understand. 15:09:13 6 Ms Tittensor? 15:09:16 7 8 MS TITTENSOR: The position of counsel assisting is that 15:09:17 that would be appropriate, Commissioner. 9 As was 15:09:18 15:09:22 10 foreshadowed in relation to the next witness, Bateson, it may be - it is likely to be with this witness that we get a 15:09:28 11 15:09:32 12 certain way into his evidence and the remainder of his 15:09:35 13 evidence is adjourned over to the next hearings so that we can deal with the SDU issues. 15:09:39 14 15 15:09:43 16 COMMISSIONER: Some of the witness hearings will be in 17 private hearing? 15:09:47 18 15:09:51 19 MS TITTENSOR: Yes, I see. 20 COMMISSIONER: 15:09:52 21 Do you have an attitude - Ms Argiropoulos, it is your witness, is it? 15:09:54 22 23 15:09:57 24 MS ARGIROPOULOS: It is. I understand my learned friend doesn't have access to a statement, even a redacted 15:09:58 25 There is no difficulty with the redacted version 15:10:01 26 15:10:04 27 being provided. 28 15:10:05 29 When we have given leave to appear we have COMMISSIONER: 15:10:07 30 given the unredacted version to witnesses, subject to their 15:10:10 31 undertaking not to discuss it with their clients, other 15:10:14 32 than matters directly relevant to their clients. 33 15:10:19 34 MS ARGIROPOULOS: I understand that, Commissioner. 15:10:20 35 relation to this statement in particular there is a matter I'd just seek to draw the Commissioner's attention to. 15:10:22 36 37 COMMISSIONER: 38 Yes. 39 15:10:25 40 MS ARGIROPOULOS: And based on that I'd be seeking that my 15:10:27 41 learned friend does not be provided - is not provided with 15:10:30 42 the unredacted statement on pp.14 and 15. If I can just 15:10:37 43 indicate to the Commissioner in as cryptic a way as I can 15:10:43 44 in open court the basis for that. Perhaps if I can refer,

1 there. 15:10:52 2 3 MS ARGIROPOULOS: Yes, it's the same problem, but I think 15:10:53 15:10:55 4 the problem is - the explanation is more apparent from 106. 5 So it's because of the - what appears underneath the 15:10:59 15:11:03 6 redactions in 103, 106 and 109 that - my submission would 7 be that those pages, which have no relevance to Tony 15:11:11 15:11:14 8 Mokbel, should not be provided in unredacted form. 9 Commissioner, I might short-circuit matters. 15:11:20 10 MS TITTENSOR: For now we are content for that course, but I'm not 15:11:22 11 15:11:28 12 necessarily sure that our position will remain that it will 15:11:31 13 have no relevance to Mr Mokbel, but I think for now, being cautious - - -15:11:36 14 15 COMMISSIONER: 15:11:39 16 And to move forward. 17 15:11:40 18 MS TITTENSOR: To move forward. I might also point out paragraph 195 probably ought to be redacted as well. 15:11:43 19 20 15:11:53 21 MS ARGIROPOULOS: Yes, I was going to come to that. certainly very comfortable to proceed on that basis for now 15:11:55 22 15:11:57 23 and it may be the position changes subsequently, but to 15:12:01 24 move things along - - -25 15:12:02 26 COMMISSIONER: Just to move things along, I think we'll 15:12:05 27 work on that basis. So that Ms Ristivojevic will be given 15:12:10 28 a copy of the statement with those redactions and your 15:12:16 29 legal team, Ms Ristivojevic, you and your legal team will 15:12:30 30 provide an undertaking only to discuss with your client 15:12:33 31 those passages of the statement that you have that are relevant to his defence 15:12:37 32 15:12:39 33 15:12:40 34 MS RISTIVOJEVIC: I give that undertaking. 35 Relevant to his interaction with Ms Gobbo. 15:12:41 36 COMMISSIONER: 15:12:46 37 Hopefully you'll be given a statement very soon. case we can now proceed in open hearing. Could the witness 15:12:49 38 15:12:57 39 go into the witness box. 40 15:13:22 41 <PAUL DAVID ROWE, sworn and examined:</pre> 42

2 Detective, you've made a statement in relation to this 15:13:45 Royal Commission?---Yes 15:13:48 4 15:13:49 Do you have a copy of that there in front of you?---Yes, I 5 15:13:50 6 do. 15:13:53 7 8 Just turning to the back page, is that statement dated 25 15:13:54 June 2019?---Yes, it is. 9 15:13:58 10 Are there any amendments that you'd seek to make to 15:14:03 11 15:14:07 12 that?---No, there's a typo in there but I can't find it now that I've been reading it, but it is in there somewhere. 15:14:10 13 14 And are the contents of that statement true and 15:14:13 15 All right. correct?---Yes. 15:14:16 16 17 15:14:17 18 Commissioner, I tender the statement of Detective Sergeant Rowe, both in the unredacted and redacted form. 15:14:21 19 20 The unredacted will be Exhibit 266 and 15:14:26 21 COMMISSIONER: Yes. the redacted will be - 266A and the redacted will be 266B. 15:14:30 22 15:14:37 23 15:14:38 24 #EXHIBIT 266A - Unredacted statement of Paul Rowe. 15:14:40 25 #EXHIBIT 266B - Redacted statement of Paul Rowe. 15:14:40 26 27 COMMISSIONER: Yes, Ms Tittensor. 15:14:44 28 29 <CROSS-EXAMINED BY MS TITTENSOR:</pre> 30 31 15:14:48 32 Mr Rowe, in terms of your relevant work locations, between 15:14:50 33 2004 and 2005, you were a Detective Senior Constable at the 15:14:55 34 Major Drug Investigation Division, is that right?---Yes. 35 And you were working there under Jim O'Brien?---Yes. 15:14:57 36 37 Who else was in your team at that stage?---Steve Mansell 15:15:02 38 15:15:06 39 was the Detective Sergeant, Eliza Burrows and Craig Hayes 15:15:10 40 were Detective Senior Constables. 41 15:15:12 42 And how many teams were operating or crews were operating 15:15:15 43 in the MDID at that stage?---I don't know. There was two 15:15:21 44 separate units. In our unit, which was unit 2, I think at 15:15:28 45 least four, perhaps. 46

And following that, you became a member of the Purana Task Force? -- Yes. 1 15:15:36 2 3 Was that effectively your MDID crew subsumed into the 15:15:37 Purana Task Force?---Yes. 15:15:42 4 6 So your work colleagues didn't change from that point of 15:15:44 7 view?---Steve Mansell didn't go to Purana. He transferred 15:15:48 8 out somewhere else. 15:15:53 9 15:15:54 10 Did you get someone new coming in?---Dale Flynn became our 11 12 15:15:58 13 Detective Senior Sergeant? --- Detective Sergeant, so his crew and our crew sort of merged together. 15:16:01 14 15 15:16:03 16 Who then became the new crew altogether? It would have 15:16:07 17 been yourself, Burrows and Hayes from the old crew?---Yeah, 15:16:12 18 and Evans Hantsis and I think that's it. 19 15:16:20 20 So Flynn is sitting above you?---Yes. 21 15:16:23 22 And were they also from another crew out of the 15:16:27 23 MDID? - - - Yes. 24 15:16:30 25 The reason you came over and into the Purana Task Force was essentially Operation Posse commenced, is that 15:16:36 26 15:16:41 27 right?---Yes. 28 15:16:41 29 And that was an operation targeting what was known as the 15:16:45 30 Mokbel cartel, or Mr Mokbel, Tony Mokbel, and his 15:16:49 31 associates? --- Yes. 32 15:16:52 33 Are you aware when it was decided or first thought of that 15:17:01 34 this might be a thing that you would do, that the crew 15:17:05 35 might move into Purana?---Some time after September 2005. 36 15:17:11 37 Had something like that Operation Posse been mooted at an earlier stage, to your knowledge?---No, but I have read 15:17:17 38 15:17:23 39 documents that predate 2005 - like early 2005, that I think 15:17:28 40 are titled Operation Posse, but I wasn't aware of it. 41 You weren't aware of it at the time but you subsequently 15:17:33 42 15:17:37 43 have learned that an operation of this kind had been mooted 15:17:41 44 at an earlier stage?---There was intelligence, I think, 15:17:44 45 listed under Operation Posse. I don't think it was 15:17:47 46 specifically an investigation designed the way it was once 15:17:51 47 we got to Purana.

1 2 Part of the workings of Operation Posse involved gathering 15:17:54 lots of intelligence that could then be investigated and 15:18:00 4 worked upon?---Yes. 15:18:04 6 In terms of operations that involved Mr Mokbel and his 15:18:07 associates, in 2005, prior to you becoming the Purana Task 7 15:18:12 15:18:18 8 Force, the MDID were running an operation known as Operation Quills?---Yes. 9 15:18:21 10 You would have been aware that Mr Mokbel and a number of 15:18:25 11 15:18:29 12 his associates were already facing numerous charges from 15:18:33 13 earlier operations at that stage?---Yes. 14 And a number of those related to operations both from the 15:18:37 15 15:18:45 16 MDID but also from the old Drug Squad?---Yes, particularly 15:18:48 17 Mr Mokbel. 18 15:18:49 19 So one of those - have you heard of Operation Kayak?---Yes. 20 And that involved some alleged offending between October 15:18:53 21 and December of 2000, around about?---Yes. 15:18:56 22 23 15:19:01 24 Was it your understanding that they'd been delayed in court because of corruption issues that had existed within the 15:19:04 25 old Drug Squad?---Yes. 15:19:08 26 27 15:19:11 28 Following that, there was Operation Landslip, is that 15:19:15 29 right?---Yes. 30 15:19:16 31 And that involved alleged offending up to around August of 2001?---Yes, I'll accept that. 15:19:20 32 33 15:19:24 34 If I say that, you'll accept it?---Yeah. 35 I'm sure I'll be corrected at some stage. 15:19:26 36 And then also 15:19:31 37 following that, Operation Matchless?---Yes. 38 15:19:35 39 And that was offending between September 2002 and April 15:19:39 40 2003? - - - Yes. 41 15:19:41 42 So the MDID, in 2005, in terms of their knowledge, would 15:19:47 43 have known that Mr Mokbel was already facing a number of 15:19:51 44 drug charges arising out of those earlier matters?---I know 15:19:56 45 he was facing charges for Kayak, but I don't know whether 15:19:59 46 he was facing charges for Landslip or Matchless at that

If it be the case that charges had been laid by that stage against Mr Mokbel, do you accept that you would have been aware of it as at 2005?---I don't know. They were a different crew, and I think those jobs were done years before I even worked there.

Is it not the kind of intelligence that you would have, what charges Mr Mokbel would be facing, what's coming up for him in terms of court dates and trials and so forth?---No, not in specific detail, not when it's another crew or an investigation you haven't been involved in. You might know in a general sense.

In a general sense you knew that he was facing a number of drug charges and that he had various proceedings on foot?---Yes.

Specifically in around August-September 2005, would you have been aware that he had proceedings on foot and pending in relation to some Commonwealth drug charges?---I don't know. My understanding of that is it fell under Kayak, in a broader sense, but I may be wrong.

And as at September 2005 Ms Gobbo was actively involved in his representation in charges before the court?---I don't know to what extent.

You were aware - you would have been aware, from media reports and so forth, that Ms Gobbo was involved in the representation of Tony Mokbel?---No, I don't know.

There was subpoena argument happening in relation to Mr Mokbel in the Supreme Court in September and October 2005. You would have been aware of that?---Probably in September-October 2005, possibly.

There was a trial of Mr Mokbel occurring in February and March of 2006. You would have been aware of that?---Yes.

In the meantime, you had been conducting Operation Quills and there was some arrest in relation to Operation Quills of Mr Mokbel in about October 2005, is that right?---No.

Is it the case that he was arrested - there was a Commonwealth component of Operation Quills as well, there were some Commonwealth charges arising in the course of

1 that investigation?---Well, there was a very separate 15:22:41 15:22:47 2 investigation being conducted by the AFP that whilst it had 3 crossover with Operation Quills we were not actively 15:22:54 15:22:57 4 working together. 5 6 Were you aware that he was arrested in relation to those 15:22:59 7 Commonwealth charges in October 2005?---Yes. 15:23:03 8 9 And you were certainly aware that Mr Mokbel fled the 15:23:07 jurisdiction prior to his trial finishing in March of 15:23:10 10 2006?---Yes. 15:23:14 11 12 15:23:16 13 And that Ms Gobbo was representing him at the time?---Yes. 14 15:23:19 15 And you also were aware that she would represent associates of Mr Mokbel?---Yes. 15:23:24 16 17 15:23:27 18 And that would have been your awareness throughout 2005, 15:23:31 19 during your conduct of Operation Quills?---Well, yes, I 15:23:41 20 think it was fairly widely known within the Major Drug Investigation Division that she would represent those 15:23:47 21 persons that were associated with Mr Mokbel. 15:23:48 22 23 15:23:53 24 By the time you had arrived at the MDID you would have 15:24:01 25 known of Ms Gobbo through the profile that she had in the media and so forth?---I don't think that I did. 15:24:04 26 27 15:24:06 28 Were you aware that she also represented a number of other 15:24:09 29 underworld figures, perhaps associated with Mokbel, such as 15:24:15 30 Carl Williams and his family and associates?---Certainly 15:24:18 31 not prior to late 2005, or even until I started at Purana, 15:24:23 32 really. 33 15:24:24 34 Did police maintain an awareness in terms of which lawyers 15:24:29 35 were representing which people that they were interested in?---Well, they do in a general sense, but not widely 15:24:31 36 15:24:41 37 across other investigations or investigations being handled by other areas, or even by other people. 15:24:45 38

Ms Gobbo was known to be someone that had more than a professional relationship with her clients?---Yes.

She was known to socialise with them?---Yes.

. 28/06/19 3246

In paragraph 10 of your statement, you say that she was - I might get this right - of Ms Gobbo, that she was suspected of having personal relationships with Mr Mokbel and had reputations for providing protection for him through at least her role as a lawyer?---Yes.

Were you aware that Mr O'Brien had, at one stage, considered himself obtaining a warrant on her phone?---I don't know.

Did you ever at any stage consider yourself that she might be compromised and perhaps involved in criminality?---Yes.

At what stage did you consider that?---Well, it was suspected, I think widely, from my time at the Major Drug Investigation Division and then I think it was confirmed as of August 2005.

And what type of criminality are you talking about?---Well, her role as a barrister was significantly blurred. I think Mr Mokbel used her extensively to assist him to evade prosecution and capture. She would be sent in at his behest to represent persons and in doing so, prevent them from rolling, to use a police term, on Mr Mokbel and to provide him with, I guess, an inside look at what other matters were ongoing, who'd been arrested, what evidence was available, what informers there was.

These are the types of things you outline in your statement at paragraph 11. What you're saying is that she certainly wasn't acting independently as a barrister?---No.

You're agreeing with me when you say "no"?---Yes.

And your suspicion was that Mr Mokbel encouraged and paid her to represent those who were assisting him in his criminal enterprise?---Yes.

So that she would advise those people against cooperating with the police?---Yes.

So that she would find out the existence and strength of the evidence against Mokbel when she was purportedly representing someone else?---Yes.

So that she would feed information back to Mr Mokbel?---Yes.

That she would ensure that those charged would resolve their matters without implicating him?---Yes.

So, in effect, she was not giving those clients, other than Mr Mokbel as her client, the independent representation that it was her duty to provide to them?---I guess, yes, her motivation - specific motivation, in those circumstances, were to look after Mr Mokbel.

It was her duty to provide - her duty as a barrister was to provide independent representation for the client in their best interests, you would agree with that?---I would agree with that, but I don't think that's the limit of her duty.

Her duty extends beyond that you would say?---I think her duty starts with herself and her own ethics. Her duty also extends to the criminal justice system.

Yes?---And her duty also extends to members of the public.

First and foremost, do you understand that as officers of the court that the first duty is to the court, before the client?---I expect it is and should be.

Assuming the first - we won't even assume that. Your problem with her was that she wasn't even acting in the best interests of her client, she was acting in the best interests of Mokbel?---I think she was acting in the best interests of Mr Mokbel and herself and probably other lawyers - not probably. Definitely.

And what you're saying in terms of her not acting in the best interests of the clients, you say others in the MDID shared your views?---I think there was widespread suspicion throughout, you know, the majority of the, I guess Purana time, the early 2000s, that herself and other members of the legal fraternity had that role within the underworld, if that's what you want to call it, that that is what they would do. Every police member that had any involvement in that sort of investigation had that suspicion.

So you would expect a lawyer acting ethically would, if someone comes to them, if they're conflicted, they don't act for that person because they can't act independently and in their best interests?---That's what they're supposed to do.

15:30:26
                 That's what they're supposed to do. I guess - I'll just leave that there.
                                    Now, you were the primary investigator
15:30:33
15:30:50
        4
                 in Operation Quills?---Yes.
         6
                 A number of arrests were made in that operation on 15
15:30:53
        7
                 August 2005?---Yes.
15:30:57
        9
                 And that included someone by the name of Mr Bickley? -Yes.
15:31:00
        10
                 Someone else by the name of M
15:31:06 11
        12
                 And there's another name.
15:31:11 13
                                              Do you know how to say that one? - - IMr Dunlop
                                      , which is probably not right.
15:31:13 14

                                        Mr Dunlop

15:31:21 16
                 I'll spell that one.
        17
15:31:24 18
                 There was a record of interview conducted with

                    Bickley
                             is that right?---Yes.
        20
15:31:29 21
                 And he asked to speak to Ms Gobbo?---Yes.
        22
15:31:33 23
                 Before that time you'd had nothing to do with her?---Not 15:31:36 24
                 that I know of, no.
        25
15:31:38 26
                 That you recall?---That I can recall.
        27
15:31:41 28
                 Save that you - her reputation preceded her?---Yes.
        29
                 Some time after that Mr Bickley's
15:31:50 30
                                                        bail application was 15:31:57 31
                 listed, is that right?---Yes.
        32
15:31:59 33
                 On 31 August 2005?---Yes.
        34
15:32:03 35
                 And that was at the Melbourne Magistrates' Court?---Yes.
        36
15:32:07 37
                 And at 8.30 on that morning you got a call from Ms Gobbo?---Yes.
15:32:14 38
        39
15:32:14 40
                 Can you tell the Commissioner what the content of that call 15:32:18 41
                 was?---I wrote it down word for word in my notes, so if I'm 15:32:24 42
                 able to refer to my notes, please.

P. ROWE - XXN

47

If the witness might be provided with his MS TITTENSOR: 15:32:33 1 2 diary?---Yes, please. 15:32:35 3 Are you looking at p.216 of your - - -?---Yes. 15:33:33 4 in the morning I've got, "Spoke to Nicola Gobbo". 5 15:33:43 haven't got it there but she called me, "Re Op Quills, 15:33:46 15:33:50 7 defendant Mr Bickley Gobbo stated she had listened to 15:33:55 8 ROI", which means the record of interview, "And acknowledged that Tony Mokbel's name was mentioned. 15:33:57 enquired whether the bail application would prove to be 15:33:59 10 15:34:02 11 embarrassing for her should Mokbel's name be mentioned. She also said that she did not want to represent Mr Bickley 15:34:06 12 as it was not in his best interest, and that there was a 15:34:10 13 However, she was compelled to do it 15:34:13 14 conflict of interest. She again enquired whether statements/evidence 15:34:16 15 by Mokbel. 15:34:19 16 would be given as part of the police summary which may 15:34:24 17 embarrass her or cause her problems. I informed her that I 15:34:27 18 would not comment on other parties involved in the 15:34:30 19 operation and that of the three offenders arrested, Mr Bickley was at the top of the tree. 15:34:34 20 I also informed her that bail would be vigorously opposed and that I was aware 15:34:37 21 of her position in relation to Mokbel and I suggested to 15:34:40 22 15:34:44 23 her that myself and Detective Sergeant Mansell would be at 15:34:47 24 court early and that we could discuss the matter in person. 25 15:34:53 26 And immediately following that - that was quite an 15:34:56 27 extraordinary conversation to have had with a barrister, I 15:34:59 28 take it?---Yes, it was. 29 15:35:03 30 She clearly had indicated to you she didn't want to be doing what she was doing - or what it was proposed she do 15:35:06 31 15:35:10 32 that morning, make a bail application for 15:35:14 33 -Well, yes, she was indicating she didn't 15:35:17 34 want to do what she perceived she was being forced to do by 15:35:21 35 Mr Mokbel. 36 And she was effectively telling you what you and others had 15:35:23 37 long believed to be the situation?---Yes. 15:35:27 38 39 15:35:31 40 And it was - of course, you went straight to your 15:35:34 41 supervisors to tell them what had just occurred?---Yes. 42 15:35:37 43 First of all, Detective Sergeant Mansell?---Yes. 44 15:35:41 45 And then to Detective Senior Sergeant O'Brien?---Yes. 46

. 28/06/19 3250

I take it both of you then went off to O'Brien?---Yes, we

15:35:45 47

15:35:49 1 did.

7

2

And then a decision was made that you'd meet Ms Gobbo at court, record the conversation and see if she wouldn't say the same things on tape?---Yes.

6

15:36:04

15:36:09

I take it the recording was done covertly?---Yes.

8

15:36:13 10

What was it proposed to do with that recording if you got it?---I actually don't know. I guess it would depend on the content of the recording.

You gave some evidence just before about your belief that she might be compromised and possibly involved in criminality herself?---Yes.

15:36:39 18

15:36:43 19 15:36:48 20

15:36:28 14

And that criminality involved effectively her not complying with her duties as a barrister and her duties to the court?---Well, I think probably at the lower end it is. At the higher end it was attempting to pervert the course of justice.

15:36:51 21 22

15:36:51 23

15:36:55 24

15:36:59 25

That is what I was just going to ask you. Was it a thought in your mind maybe if she says these things tape, we might have some evidence against her or others that she might also say were involved in terms of perverting the course of justice?---I think it was probably a consideration.

15:37:02 26 15:37:06 27 28

15:37:12 29

15:37:14 30

15:37:17 31

15:37:21 32

Do you think that was something that was discussed as between you and Mansell and O'Brien when you made the decision to tape the conversation?---No, I don't believe so, and I don't know whether I've reflected more on that, obviously, in recent times. It was unusual and we didn't know what she was going to say or really what was going to eventuate and so - I mean it's fairly standard practice by police if you can capture it, you capture it and then you

15:37:26 33 15:37:30 34 15:37:32 35

15:37:38 36

assess it afterwards.

You had some idea of what she could possibly say because

15:37:41 37 38 15:37:42 39

she'd already said it to you on the phone?---In a round about way she had, yes.

15:37:48 41 42 15:37:50 43

15:37:45 40

That she felt compelled to be representing someone where there was a conflict of interest?---Yes.

15:37:53 44 45 15:37:58 46

15:38:02 47

So as it turned out - you went along to court with Detective Sergeant Mansell, is that right?---Yes.

Had it been proposed initially that he was going to go to court, or was it the case that once this came up he decided he'd tag along with you?---I don't know. If he wasn't coming, this certainly would have been the catalyst for him to come.

So you went off to court and you met Ms Gobbo?---Yes.

And as it turned out, there hadn't been a gaol order so the bail application couldn't proceed?---That's correct.

But nevertheless you and Mansell spoke to Ms Gobbo at court?---Yes.

And it was either at court, I think you say in your statement you have given an account of what was said to you that day and you can't be confident one way or another whether some of it was initially at court or during another conversation you had later that day, is that right?---Yes.

Nevertheless, when you got to court she was again very open and very candid about the situation that she said she was in?---She was. She was visibly upset, she was saying stuff that - I don't know. It's almost hard to fathom in the context of being an investigator and speaking to a barrister like that.

She was telling you exactly what you suspected insofar as she was telling you about the ways in which she would gather information for Tony Mokbel and his associates? --- She was confirming what we suspected, but the disbelief isn't about the fact that she was actually doing these things, the disbelief is that she's then basically divulging all that, confessing it, whatever word you want to use, right there to us, people she didn't even know.

As a law enforcement officer you would have almost some disbelief that another person with obligations to the court and to the law might engage in this behaviour, first of all, but second of all, that they would say it to a It's quite extraordinary, isn't it?---The policeman. second part is definitely extraordinary. The first part, in my experience, is probably not a massive surprise. don't mean that - I'm not trying to have a shot, but in the context of those times and the investigations we were doing and the members of the legal fraternity that were looking after certain clients, the fact that lines were very 15:40:34 1 15:40:39 2 blurred is not a massive surprise.

15:40:42 4

In any case, what Ms Gobbo was telling you on this day was the ways in which she would obtain information for Mr Mokbel and his associates to their benefit?---In a broad sense, yes.

15:40:51 6 15:40:58 7

15:40:59 15:41:03 10

15:40:48 5

She would tell you how she felt compelled to put his interests ahead of others that she represented?---Yes.

11

9

She told you that she was concerned about whether she herself had committed criminal offences in relation to her assistance of Mr Mokbel?---She didn't use those words, but she alluded to it, yes.

15:41:20 17

15:41:07 12

15:41:10 13

Did she mention what offences she might - she felt she might have committed?---No.

15:41:25 18 19

15:41:27 20

15:41:31 21

She appeared, you say in your statement, to be in a vulnerable state at the time, would you say that?---She was She was visibly upset. She was stressed by the position she was in.

15:41:35 22 15:41:41 23

27

36

40

Quite an unbelievable experience to hear those words out of Tony Mokbel's lawyer's mouth?---Yes.

15:41:44 25 15:41:48 26

> Unbelievable more so that she was saying those things to the very police who were potentially prosecuting him?---Well, we weren't prosecuting him at that point in time. We were investigating him.

15:41:54 28 15:41:58 29

15:42:03 30 15:42:05 31 32

> Well, the very police that were investigating him with a view to prosecuting him?---I think that's probably reflective of the amount of pressure she was under.

15:42:07 33 15:42:10 34 15:42:13 35

> At that point in time Detective Mansell saw a real opportunity to make something of Ms Gobbo's concerns, is that right?---No. That is not even remotely right.

15:42:24 38 15:42:28 39

15:42:17 37

Did he say something to her like, "You should get on 15:42:30 41 15:42:33 42 15:42:35 43

15:42:42 44

board"?---Yeah, but there's a whole conversation that comes before that where she relays in detail to the extent of the pressure she was under, the stress, her health issues, her concerns about committing offences, her worry about her reputation, her worry about her safety. This is not a case of us just pouncing on an injured mouse crawling on the 15:43:02 47

15:42:46 45 15:42:52 46

This is an unbelievably unexpected situation.

Was it to make her situation better if she started informing or getting on board in relation to Mr Mokbel?---She was 100 per cent looking for a way out of that environment where she felt compelled to do these things on behalf of people that, let's face it, were involved in serious organised crime for many, many years, homicides, large scale drug trafficking and - don't get me wrong, I'm not saying she doesn't have a level of responsibility for her own behaviour, but she was under enormous pressure and looking for a way out, a hand of friendship.

And was the way out for her to get on board?---Well, that's a way out we could offer her, yes. Ultimately that decision was up to her.

And that's the effect - those are the words that Detective Mansell said to her towards the end of that conversation at the Magistrates' Court?---Yes, he did.

Was that something that had occurred to the three of you earlier, the three of you being O'Brien, Mansell and yourself?---I can't speak to what occurred for them. Ιt wasn't discussed and it had never occurred to me.

Ms Gobbo, when she heard those words, certainly didn't reject it out of hand? She didn't say, "No thanks"?---No, she didn't.

What she did say is that, "If anyone finds out, I'd end up dead"?---Yes, which I think is a fair statement.

Did it occur to you that the potential for her to get on board might make her situation even worse?---You're talking about a moment in time, several minutes of a conversation. There's no - really all we're doing at that point in time is having a conversation with her. The ramifications and the considerations and all that stuff, those thought processes come later. There's no way we could foresee, anticipate the extent of her involvement with these type of people and the reach she had into organised crime, the things that she was exposed to - I don't mean in her role as a barrister but her role as an associate, as a friend. So I guess the answer is at that point in time, there's no way we perceived that that would make things worse for her.

After she made the comment about, "If anyone finds out, I'd end up dead", what occurred then? Was it the case that you indicated something about being able to manage her safety?---Yeah, and I know I've put that in my statement and I recall that being said. I know there's other documentation that suggests that that was said by Steve. All I can say is I know it was said, I know it was said. I mean, it's absolutely right, it would have to be managed. The last thing - I mean, there's a lot of things that have happened but it's not worth anyone's death.

You arranged - how long did this conversation at the Magistrates' Court go on for?---I put in my statement five minutes. It may have been three or two. It was in a relatively public area. There was a number of people walking past, including her instructing solicitor. It just wasn't the right place to have that conversation.

And the meeting, at that stage, ended with an arrangement to meet up later and she handed over her mobile phone number for that purpose?---Yes, she did.

Following that I guess you hot footed it back to the office and told Mr O'Brien what had occurred?---Yes.

Was his reaction disbelief or excitement? What was it?---I don't think Jim would have that reaction in any situation, either of those reactions. He's just very straight, up and down, matter of fact, get on with business. I think it was a very short conversation about meeting up with her again.

Did you play him the tape?---No.

It was only three or five minutes?---Yes.

You didn't play him the tape?---No, we just had the conversation, just relayed it.

And there was a decision to have another recorded conversation later that day?---Yes.

And I think you say in your statement, "To understand what information she might be able to provide and if she was interested in cooperating"?---Yes.

The information you thought she might - you might expect her to be able to provide would be about her client, Mr Mokbel, at the very least?---Yes.

Did you consider that that in itself might be inappropriate?---Not in the circumstances.

In what circumstances were they?---Circumstances where her as a barrister, is acknowledging, I guess, the manipulation of the criminal justice system on his behalf. lowest, as you said earlier, the impact that has on her professional obligations, but at the highest it's attempting to pervert the course of justice by her, but by him as well. I don't see how that ever could not be appropriate to disclose.

So your understanding of whatever cooperation she might give would necessarily be limited to an investigation into an attempt to pervert the course of justice, something of that nature, by Mr Mokbel?---Can you just repeat that, sorry? I just missed the start of it.

Was your understanding of the extent of the cooperation that she might give related to an investigation into an attempt to pervert the course of justice by Mr Mokbel?---That was certainly one aspect of it. point in time I had no concept of the extent of criminal activity she was exposed to. She was - I don't know what the right word is. Let's go with exposed to, that she was exposed to, I had no concept. We were investigating Tony Here she is telling me that she's trying to square away a witness so that Tony Mokbel doesn't get charged with the offences that we're investigating him for, so in our world that's something that we have to listen to and consider.

You considered that her use - the use that Victoria Police or you might make of her was to investigate a crime of the nature of an attempt to pervert the course of justice, is that right?---Potentially at that point in time, yes.

If it went beyond that, where she might be breaching legal professional privilege or providing instructions in relation to other clients, you wouldn't understand - you would have viewed that as inappropriate?---Well, I think the short answer is potentially, subject to what the I mean, we were, to a certain extent, just letting things unfold as they were. I mean, I think -

15:51:27 46 circumstances are. 15:51:38 47

I don't know. We had no interest in - Tony Mokbel was facing charges already. I had no interest in that, that was of no significance to us as investigators, it had nothing to do with us, he was already before the court, the investigations had been run and done or were in the process of getting done. Had no interest in that whatsoever. Never discussed it with her, never had any interest in it. All we cared about is criminal activity that was ongoing that was right there in front of our face.

And preserving the integrity of the criminal justice system?---That's a massive part of it, isn't it? you say that with somewhat of a tone. Like that's not -I'm not saying that - throwing out a line because we're here in a Royal Commission. Her and others were just making a mockery of the system for years and for whatever reason, on that day it bubbled to the surface and I think if you look at the type of information she was giving and things she was exposed to that followed quickly after, I think that's reflective of her role within the criminal justice system.

Was there any thought about advice, legal advice, that you might get before you set down this path?---This is day one, this is like a number of hours - a strange phone call and even more strange conversation. As I said, the opportunity was to capture it - or our thought process was we would capture it because it had happened and whatever needed to follow would follow.

So that afternoon you went and spoke to her for a little bit longer, another hour?---Yes.

That was recorded again?---Yes.

Another extraordinary conversation with her?---Yes.

She again talked openly and you say seemed to be venting to get a lot of information off her chest?---Yes.

And you say she covered a lot of different topics, not necessarily in great detail each one, but covering a lot of different topics?---Yes.

That included topics related to Mr Mokbel, is that right?---Yes.

She told you information about his assets being concealed and how he would launder money?---Yep - in a general sense.

We didn't go into detail.

She expressed some concern that the money that she was being paid with might be money from drug dealing?---Yes.

That she might be committing criminal offences by aiding or assisting Mokbel?---Yes.

She expressed concern about her reputation within the legal profession?---Yes.

She spoke to you about being conflicted in relation to Mr Bickley who she thought should be given an opportunity to cooperate, given the evidence and the charges against him?---Yes.

Did she tell you that she'd been involved, in the past, in advising clients to roll on others, without naming names, if she did - - -?---At a subsequent meeting with the SDU she referred to it, yes.

Do you think in hindsight that there was any chance that Ms Gobbo herself might have been manipulating police for her own ends at that time?---I wouldn't say manipulating, not manipulating. She was, no doubt, looking out for herself.

That she had her own motivations for wanting to establish some form of informing relationship with the police?---My perception of it at that time wouldn't be to put it that high. She was under - you can't fake the pressure and the body language and the tears and everything, you can't fake that. She was looking for assistance, I think, a way out. That's what she was looking at at the time. I don't think it was part of a grand scheme and whatever else, she just needed to relieve the pressure she was under to do certain things on behalf of others.

You've just said one of the things she spoke to you about in that conversation was the conflict of interest she had with Mr Bickley -Yes.

Did she tell you in the same breath that she was going to act for his co-accused Hastings --- Not in the same breath.

In the same conversation?---She said she had been - she had this is not a flippant little conversation and she is representing him and she is going to do this as well, it wasn't like that. She was hell bent on not representing Mr Bickley she was looking - on the day the bail application was listed, she was looking for a reason not Thankfully Zarah Garde-Wilson had failed to get the gaol order to bring Mr Bickley to court, and that was her means of not having to represent Mr Bickley

On that day?---On that day. This is the same day, though, we're talking about. She had, as I said, expressed vehemently that she did not want to represent him, it wasn't in his best interests, over three conversations now. Somewhere in the meantime, between them getting charged and this date, she had been asked to do a bail application for and she had said she was going to accept that and that was her means of not having to represent Mr Bickley was looking at a way to justify to Tony why she's not representing Mr Bickley

But she'd already listened to Mr Bickley record of interview and spoken to you about his bail application, she'd already been representing Mr Bickley hadn't record of interview and she?---She listened to Mr Bickley it's in that record of interview that Tony Mokbel's name is mentioned and so she has the revelation of the issues she's going to have, and she's not talking to me about Mr Bickley's bail app, as to how we're going to run it and whatever else, she's talking to me about effectively, "How can I get out of doing it?"

She goes on to make an application of bail for Mr Hastings after which she speaks to you and tells you that Mr Hastings wants to make a statement against Mr Bickley

And you took a statement from Mr Hastings ?---Yes, I did. mean, my role was to investigate that matter and Hastings had evidence he could provide. I mean, on the flip side, I would argue that she is then probably doing what she should do in her role, as in give people the opportunity to improve their situation and him giving a statement against Mr Bickley who was undoubtedly above on the food chain, I think was probably sensible.

That was a sensible idea for her to represent Hastings recommend or advise in relation to whether or not he

1 might make a statement against an earlier client of 16:00:04 16:00:08 2 hers?---If you look at - - -3 16:00:10 4

In the same matter?---You've got to look at it - whether it is sensible or not, that's for her to decide, but we're now looking at it through, you know, the prism of all these At the time, this is all happening within a matter She saw it as her way to avoid Mr Bickley think that's reflective of the situation she had got herself in.

You spoke further in that conversation back on 31 August about the possibility of her cooperating, is that right?---Sorry?

Going back to that conversation, the afternoon conversation that was being recorded?---Yep.

You spoke about various topics in relation to Mokbel and Did you speak about anyone else, any other personalities, in that time?---Ms Garde-Wilson.

Anyone else?---Not that I can - - -

I might be stretching your memory here?---I have no doubt there was, but not that I can recall right now.

It wasn't confined to her providing - getting information off her chest simply in relation to Mr Mokbel, she was speaking about other people involved in his cartel, his associates?---I don't think she was. This was not an, "Divulge to us everything you know about everyone or let me know about all of Tony's offending, or this person's She is basically using it as a counselling session, an opportunity to just vent about anything and everything, and we weren't really asking questions, we were just listening.

To be fair, she went over a lot of topics and didn't go into any great detail in relation to any of them?---That's correct.

Towards the end of that conversation you had a further conversation about the prospects of her coming on board and cooperating, is that right?---Yes.

She wanted some assurances that she'd be looked

Were they provided to Mr O'Brien to listen to, to the SDU, before they spoke to her, to give them some background of what was going on? That would be sensible, wouldn't it?---I didn't give it to them. Mr O'Brien had them in his safe.

He knew that they'd been placed in his safe, or they were given to him to put in his safe?---That's certainly my recollection of it, yes. Whether he listened to it or not, I don't know.

You would expect, in these circumstances, with a specialist informer management unit, that they would be given the hour or so of tapes where this person is essentially offloading all this information, that they would have been given to the SDU?---I don't know. I'm not sure. You could probably argue two different ways.

Now, your diary - I've already referred to, refers to transcripts of those conversations?---Yes.

You say that's a mistake. How does it end up in your diary that there are transcripts if there aren't?---Because normally if there's a recording, I write refer either recording and transcript or refer transcript, but clearly on day one, there can't be a transcript, and I would never have sent them off to get transcribed.

Did you ordinarily write that in advance, expecting that there would be transcript?---Yeah, that's possible too, yeah, definitely.

Is it the case then that you sent these CDs off for transcribing?---No.

Why is it that you would write "transcript" if you're not sending it off to be transcribed?---Because I think it's my habit, that I've just done the same thing as I always do. When you're referring to a recording that you haven't written in your notes, you just write "refer recording" or "refer transcript". 99.9 per cent of the time you get them transcribed. I was never going to get that transcribed.

On 1 September, it seems, the next day, you ran into Ms Gobbo at court again?---Yes.

And she reported to you, "Yep, Tony Mokbel has been on to 16:07:02 1 16:07:07 me about Mr Bickley's bail app and wants to know why it 3 didn't go ahead"?---Yes. 16:07:11 4 5 And that gave you some reassurance that - or confirmation 16:07:12 16:07:17 that, yes, he is using her to try and get some 7 information?---Confirmation, yes. 16:07:20 8 And, again, that's concerning to you, that someone's 9 16:07:25 lawyer, Mr Bickley's lawyer, was not acting in his best 16:07:28 10 interests, she was potentially going to act in someone 16:07:31 11 16:07:34 12 else's best interests?---Well, at that point of time, I 16:07:41 13 don't think my concern was with Mr Bickley necessarily. 14 16:07:48 15 On 6 September there was a bail application for 16:07:52 16 Mr Bickley -The 6th, did you say? 17 Yes?---Yes. 16:07:55 18 19 I think you previously told Ms Gobbo that bail was going to 16:08:01 20 16:08:05 21 be vigorously opposed?---Yes. 22 Do you know if it was?---Yes. 23 16:08:07 24 He was granted bail, in the event?---Yes. 16:08:09 25 26 16:08:14 27 Did Ms Gobbo appear for him?---No. 28 16:08:18 29 Do you know that for sure?---I believe - you'll correct me if I am wrong - but I believe she didn't. 16:08:26 30 31 Your statement says, "My diary does not record whether 16:08:29 32 16:08:32 33 Ms Gobbo appeared and I don't remember if she said." 16:08:35 34 That's a bit different to a definite "no"?---Yes, it is. 16:08:40 35 I'm just doing the best off the top of my memory. 36 16:08:42 37 Do you have any recollection of who might have appeared for Mr Bickley on that occasion?---Well, he had multiple 16:08:45 38 16:08:49 39 solicitors and multiple barristers throughout his time, so 16:08:54 40 - I know it wasn't Ms Gobbo and I know it wasn't 16:08:56 41 Ms Garde-Wilson. We had gone to see him at some point in 16:09:00 42 time and Theo Magazis was in with him, he had Tony 16:09:07 43 Hargreaves at one point. I think there was some sort of 16:09:10 44 disagreement behind the scenes between lawyers as to who was and wasn't representing him. There was obviously outside influence, strings being pulled, so it could have been any number of people.

COMMISSIONER: Could I just interrupt. Could I take you back to the initial meeting with Ms Gobbo, when you've told us that she was worried and crying, visibly upset. Did you consider that she may have been emotionally unstable, it was such a strange reaction from a lawyer?---It wasn't emotionally unstable. I mean, she was - she wasn't hysterical. She had tears running down her cheeks, but she wasn't sobbing wildly, she was just really stressed, just under enormous pressure. You could see it on her face and the way she spoke.

You said that she was worried about whether she'd committed any criminal offences herself. Did she mention any particular criminal offences?---No, she just alluded to her concern that she had crossed the line.

Thanks, Ms Tittensor.

MS TITTENSOR: The day after Mr Bickley's bail application was the bail application of Mr Hastings and I've taken you to that. Ms Gobbo appeared for Mr Hastings and tologou that Hastings wanted to make a statement against Mr Bickley? -Yes.

The day following that, 8 September 2005, did you attend a meeting with Detective Acting Superintendent Hill, Detective Inspector White, Detective Sergeant Mansell and members of the SDU?---Yes.

And there was a decision made on that day for the SDU to meet with Ms Gobbo to assess her suitability, is that right?---Yes.

I think I understand that the SDU were not going to be available to conduct such an assessment for about a week thereafter. You may or may not be aware?---I'm not sure.

Was there any discussion at that meeting about the ethical implications of making a lawyer a police agent, effectively?---I don't remember.

Are you aware that there had been - whether there had been previous discussions between the head of the SDU and Mr O'Brien about the possibility of recruiting Ms Gobbo prior to then?---Prior to this meeting?

                 Yes, prior to these events occurring.
                                                          Are you aware
16:12:06
16:12:10
                 whether there'd been discussions at an earlier stage about 3
                 the possibility of bringing Ms Gobbo on as a human 16:12:13

       14
16:12:44 15

                                                                I don't think it's anything to do with conflict, I think it's entirely to 16:13:19 17
                 do with the way this sort of unfolded and Mr Bickley
16:13:23 18
16:13:28 19
                 involvement in it and that she has no desire to have
                                                I think that's what that is 16:13:32 20
                 anything to do with Mr Bickley
                 a reference to, we're not talking about conflict or, you

       24
                 Isn't it an acknowledgment that she shouldn't be 16:13:43 25
                 representing Mr Bickley because she's conflicted?
16:13:46 26
16:13:50 27
                 already told you so herself?---But who's the acknowledgment 16:13:53 28
                 from, me - from us?
       29
16:13:56 30
                 It's a note in your diary and it occurs in the context of that meeting, doesn't it?---Yeah, and it's a record that 16:13:59 31
                 she will not have any involvement with Mr Bickley
16:14:03 32
16:14:07 33
                 think it goes any further than that.

                 Following this meeting, on 16 September is the meeting that

Commissioner, I didn't want to highjack the MR COLLINSON: remaining time, but I'm conscious we're nearly at the end. We've been circumspect about seeking access to documents on behalf of Mr Gobbo, many witnesses we've allowed to pass through the witness box without asking for access to their We're now, however, at a quite significant witness from Ms Gobbo's point of view, so I would be seeking a direction - it may be the Commissioner doesn't need to make one - that the documents to be put to this witness by my learned friend, one hard set be made available to me in chambers Monday morning and then I can proceed smoothly to ask any questions of this witness and I

There was some discussion during that meeting about the -

and some concerns raised, no doubt legitimate concerns - about people finding out that Ms Gobbo might be informing to police?---Yes.

And she had some discussion about the prospect of people issuing subpoenas for that material and they might find out in that way?---Yeah, I think that - probably from her own experience, that was a legitimate concern.

Because that's one of the mechanisms by which she would achieve disclosure in the cases that you were involved with, or the types of cases that you were involved with, is that right?---Yes.

Do you understand some of the pseudonyms that have been used for SDU members?---Yes.

The head of the unit at that stage we know by the name of Jones?---Yes.

Did Mr Jones tell Ms Gobbo that the tapes would be secured in a place where they can't be gotten and that only people that know - the only people that know they exist would be she and effectively the SDU, do you recall that being said?---Is this in the context of them talking about whether the conversation was going to be recorded or not?

Yes, there was a bit of a conversation about whether the conversation would be recorded and there was a bit of conversation about her concern that people could issue subpoenas and find out. And do you recall that Jones indicated that the tapes would be secured in a place where they cannot be gotten and the only people that know they exist would be she and them?---You're reading from the transcript, so I accept that. I'm not sure that he's necessarily talking, you know, in terms of being an obstacle to a subpoena, but - - -

MS ARGIROPOULOS: Commissioner, if my friend wants to ask this witness questions about what is on the transcript, may the witness have access to the transcript? I'm not sure it is a memory test for him. If he is being asked to agree to things, in my submission he should be entitled to have the document in front of him.
